CHARTER MEMBERS OF ELGAROSE COMFORT CLUB HONORED AT TEA PARTY

The charter members of the Elgarose Comfort Club were honored at a tea Oct. 15 at the Elgarose Clubhouse, by the present members. Mrs. Emilie Hargreaves, president, gave the welcoming speech and introduced the charter members.

The club was organized April, 1930, at the home of Mrs. Sara Holmquist. Mrs. A. S. Anderson named the club. The purpose was for the betterment of the community, to help the needy and to have a general get-together. The motto of the organization is "Those who keep humanity in mind live for a good purpose."

Lovely carnations were presented to the charter members by Mrs. Hargreaves to Daisy Ward, Mrs. Myrtle Lundeen of Sutherlin; Mrs. Dora Anderson of Oakland; Mrs. Mable Backlund, Mrs. Thelma Sundberg, Mrs. Vinnie Cooper, Brockway, Mrs. Sara Holmquist, Mrs. David Churchill, Sheridan and the guest of honor, Mrs. Edna Sjogren.

A corsage was also presented to Mrs. Hargreaves by Mrs. Showers. Early day experiences were related by the charter members. A program consisting of songs by the group and a monologue by Mrs. Showers was enjoyed.

Those unable to attend were Mrs. Nettie Woodruff, Mrs. Anita Stark, Mrs. Ida Ulrich, all of Garden Valley; Mrs. Charles Olson, Mrs. Dora Bruce, Mrs. Lilly Hess, Eugene; and Mrs. Hildur Johnson. Chrysanthemums, gladioli, roses and dahlias were used to decorate the table. The table was covered with a damask linen cloth. The centerpiece was made of roses was flanked by tiered candles in candle holders. On the cake was written Elgarose Comfort Club, 1930 to 1952.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hargreaves to the charter members and the Mesdames Connie Showers, Zelma Sand and Stevie; Lilly Thompson, Nettie Lundeen, Portland; Cora Bartholomy, Louis Meehan and children; Alma McAllister and children; Don Circle, Ruth Wooten, A. Fretwell, Jean Pankey, Alice Walker and children; David Sands and children; Thelma Hanson, Stella Woodell, Lee Brown, Emilie Hargreaves, George Sundberg, Tom Ward, Conrad Lundgren, R. C. Holmquist and David Churchill.

MRS. HALLIE MARTIN ENTERTAINS NEW IDEA CLUB ON WEDNESDAY

Beautiful fall flowers were used by Mrs. Hallie Martin Wednesday when she entertained the New Idea Club at the first fall meeting at her home west of Sutherlin. At noon, a delicious potluck dinner was enjoyed. The lace covered table was adorned with a beautiful centerpiece of flowers.

Covers were placed for the Mesdames Bonnie Harvey, Thelma Balentine, Fern Flory, Marjory Denley, Betty Smith, Jo Carr, Minnie Abeene, Maggie Francis, Lola Rose, Miss Ethel Manning and the hostess, Mrs. Martin.

The afternoon was spent sewing for the hostess and visiting. The next meeting of the club will be held Wednesday, Oct. 29, at the home of Mrs. Jo Carr, east of Sutherlin.
