West, South Squads Shine

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP) — More's the pity the South and the Far West did not schedule more intersection-two sections are the class of college football this year as the campaign steams into the second half.

Except for Michigan State — the undisputed ruler of the country — the Midwest has not showed any particular power. The Big Ten, in fact, does not boast an undefeated team. Wisconsin and Illinois were supposed to be loaded, but neither has played up to expectations.

Nor does the traditionally strong Southwest have anything to brag about outside once-tied Oklahoma, which seems a shoo-in for its fifth straight Big Seven title. The Southwest Conference does not have a team in the undefeated class. It hardly even has a favorite for the championship.

The East has lived up or down to expectations. Penn of the Ivy League, no less, is head and shoulders over the field and should win the loop title. Syracuse, which was figured to be about second best in the section, took a gruesome 48-7 mauling at the hands of Michigan State Saturday. The Orange was supposed to make it close.

Three Undefeated
But look at the Coast and South. In the Pacific Coast Conference, there are no fewer than three outfits undefeated and untied — California, Southern California and UCLA — named in the order of their chances of staying that way.

All boast 5-0 records and all are hoping for the bid to the Rose Bowl, which goes to the winner of the league crown. One of them probably will bite the dust this week when Cal and Southern Cal meet in Los Angeles in a battle of mighty offense and stonewall defense.

In the South, the big boys, in their approximate order of ranking, are Maryland, Georgia Tech, Duke and Virginia. The first three have won five games without a set-back and Virginia has captured four.

Duke meets Virginia this week and Georgia Tech the next week. The Engineers should leave the Blue Devils reeling. Actually, Maryland should beat Duke, but the Devils figure to rule the favorites over strong Virginia, probably the leading independent in the area.

Week's Big Games
Other big games this week will send Penn State against Michigan State in East Lansing, UCLA against Wisconsin at Madison and Purdue against Illinois at Urbana. The Purdue-Illinois clash could decide the Big Ten champion.

In the Ivy League Yale and Princeton could give Penn a tussle, but the Quakers seem to have too much all-around class. Houston leads the Missouri Valley, but Detroit could slip in, especially if it beats Oklahoma A and M this week. Defending Champion Utah is the class of the Skyline Conference, while Idaho State just about wrapped up the Rocky Mountain Conference championship with its 46-16 triumph over Colorado State Saturday.

There were only two minor upsets Saturday. Notre Dame took advantage of eight Purdue fumbles to win, 26-14, and Minnesota dropped Illinois, 13-7.

Otherwise the big boys just rolled along. Maryland dropped Navy from the ranks of the undefeated, 38-7; Oklahoma clouted Kansas, 42-20; California slugged Santa Clara, 27-7; Southern California whipped Oregon State, 28-6; UCLA thumped Stanford, 24-14; Georgia Tech whitewashed Auburn, 33-0; Michigan turned back Northwestern, 48-14; Penn downed Columbia, 27-17, and Tennessee defeated Alabama, 25-0.

Alumni Said To Hinder Entry Requirement Raise

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — President Robert Gordon Sprout of the University of California says that football-minded alumni stand in the way of raising the university's entrance requirements.

He told the California Association of School Administrators Thursday that the university is overtaxing its eight facilities with an enrollment of 35,000. He recommended that students who do not show exceptional promise be encouraged to attend junior and state colleges.

SF 49ers Lick Chicago Bears, 40-16, In Pros

NEW YORK (AP) — It appears likely the American Conference title of the National Football League won't be decided until the final weeks of play, while, on the other hand, the National Division race has developed into a one-team stranglehold.

The pulverizing San Francisco 49ers rule the roost in the National Conference with a 4-0 record. Two games in arrears are the Chicago Bears. Detroit Lions and Green Bay Packers, each with a pair of triumphs in four starts. The defending champion Los Angeles Rams (1-3) and the Dallas Texans (0-4), the league's newest entry, trail the pack.

In Sunday's action, San Francisco embellished its stature with a resounding 40-16 success over the Bears while the Lions remained in contention by vanquishing Los Angeles, 24-16.

The Redskins nipped Pittsburgh, 28-24, in the day's other game. On Saturday night Green Bay thumped Dallas, 24-14.

Hurricane Hugh McElhenny, continued to scintillate for the 49ers, as San Francisco completely throttled the once-potent Bears. The Rookie sensation from Washington galloped 95 yards for a touchdown on a punt return and gained 103 yards from scrimmage.

Idaho Gripes Dismissed

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — Disputed rulings in Oregon's 20-14 football victory over Idaho two weeks ago were just "matters of judgment," the Pacific Coast Conference supervisor of officials said Saturday.

After viewing motion picture of the game, Frank McCormick told reporters here he could see nothing wrong with the officiating.

Oregon won the disputed game in the closing minutes with a pair of touchdowns set up by penalties. Fans milled around the five officials after the game, and the student newspaper later demanded it be called "no contest."

McCormick said he felt it was "unfortunate so many close decisions had to be made in a space of a few minutes," adding he did not question the integrity of the officials.

PCC Commissioner Victor Schmidt is due here Wednesday and also will be asked to view films of the game, university officials said.
