FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA MEET

Saturday, Oct. 18, 16 girls from the Roseburg chapter of the Future Homemakers of America journeyed to Coos Bay for the 1953 South Coast District Conference. The hostess chapter served an eye opener of cocoa and cookies to the girls. The assembly got underway with a welcome by Mr. Shellenbarger, principal of Marshfield High School.

The two main speakers were Kay Cribbins, State FHA reporter, who spoke on "Member Participation Develops Chapter Strength." Since the state adviser, Miss Kohlhaugen, was ill, Mrs. Clark, Roseburg chapter adviser substituted, speaking on "Degrees and how to achieve them."

There were buzz sessions in which topics of interest to all chapters were discussed.

After a short lunch, the Roseburg chapter presented a skit entitled "Hubba! Hubba!" or "You're Too Young." Several other chapters also presented skits.

The 1953 South Coast District Conference will be held in North Bend with Chairman Ruth Sandquist presiding.
