Life story of FANNY BRICE

At 10 she sang on street corners and bar tops. By 17 she was a burlesque hit and on her way to Ziegfeld stardom. But though she won fame and fortune in the theater and as "Baby Snooks," she lived the heartbreak of her throbbing song, "My Man." For Fanny never found happiness... nor a man of her own. Read Fanny Brice, by Norman Katkov, starting this month in the Ladies' Home Journal.

Indian Points Bow At Officer, Faces Trial

RICHFIELD, Utah — An aged Indian, accused of drawing his bow on a white officer, was bound over to Sixth District Court Thursday for trial.

Officially, 70-year-old Connie Yazzie is charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

Mashl Beson Burr of Salina said the old Indian, at a distance of 12 feet, pulled taut his bow and pointed a steel tipped arrow at him.

Burr holstered his drawn gun, then captured Yazzie as the string slipped off his bow.

The incident followed a dispute at a turkey processing plant during which the Indian pulled a knife before retreating rapidly under the force of water from a fire hose.
