NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—The youngest of three suspects sought in the kidnaping of 20 persons and theft of four automobiles was arrested here early Saturday.

A. I. Means, agent in charge of the Memphis office of the FBI, Friday announced Virgil LeMay, 15, was arrested at a Nashville home Friday night.

Still at large and sought on kidnaping and car theft warrants are James Francis Hill, 29, of Framingham, Mass., and Charles Edward Hopkins, 19, of Jacksonville, Fla.

Both these men are former Florida convicts, released in August and April, respectively, after serving terms for armed robbery.

Means said LeMay returned to Nashville, his home town, Friday and went to the home of friends who were away at the time. He went to sleep there and when the friends returned they took him to another Nashville residence by pre-arrangement with officers, Means said. The youth was taken into custody there.

The FBI agent said LeMay probably will be returned to Chattanooga for hearing on kidnaping and auto theft charges.

Means said the boy claimed he was forced to take part in the wild crime spree and was given an empty gun for his part in the numerous holdups, robberies and kidnapings. LeMay was unarmed when arrested.

During a three-day spree through Georgia, into Tennessee, and back to Atlanta, the trio kidnaped 20 persons and stole three cars and a pick-up truck. All hostages apparently were released after a short period.

The latest victim, Herschel Myers, 20, of White County, Tenn., told police he was forced at gunpoint to drive the trio from Spencer, Tenn., to Atlanta yesterday. He said one of the bandits got out about 20 miles from Atlanta and the other two at different places in the city.

In Nashville, Lemay's mother, Mrs. Willy Lemay, said she believes her son was forced to go with the other two men.

"I know he was kidnaped. Virgil would never join men with guns in holding up people," she said. "I'm about crazy."

Demos' Fund Can't Aid Aspirants For Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell reported Friday that the Democratic National Committee, with a bank balance of $130,013.59, will be unable to help Democratic candidates for the House and Senate.

Mitchell said, too, he was "really discouraged" by the public reaction to a fund appeal made before and after Stevenson's broadcast Thursday night.

New York headquarters of the Stevenson-Sparkman Forum Committee notified him, Mitchell said, that a heavy volume of wire, mail and telephone pledges of funds has been pouring in.

Hernia or rupture consists of a protrusion of a part of the bowel or its covering, or both, through the abdominal wall. The common danger points for rupture are at the navel and in the groin. Rupture at the navel is called "umbilical hernia"; that in the groin either "inguinal" or "femoral," according to slight differences in location. Umbilical hernia is frequent in babies, but occurs as a rule in only 5% of all ruptures; rupture in the groin accounts for some 94% of all ruptures. There is still another variety of hernia which occurs in the scars of wounds in the abdomen, after injuries or surgical operations. This type may arise in almost any area of the abdominal wall.

Rupture is sometimes present at birth. In other cases, it results from various causes, natural weakness of the part involved being chief among them. Rupture is three times more frequent in men than women, and conditions favorable for it are provided by severe coughing, constipation, diarrhea, muscular work, obesity, chronic sudden strain, etc.

An external rupture first appears as a fullness or swelling on some part of the abdominal wall, more noticeable when standing, lifting, coughing, or straining. It may disappear entirely on lying down or on pressure with the fingers. In the beginning there may be discomfort after standing or walking for any length of time; later the individual often complains of a dragging pain or uneasiness, or a sensation of weakness or gripping at the seat of the rupture. When the protruding section of the bow-

Chamber Forum Slates Milk Measure Program

Monday's membership forum of the Roseburg Chamber of Commerce will present proponents and opponents to the proposed change in the milk marketing laws.

Daniel Dimick will speak in support of the measure and Mrs. Lester Adams will voice her views in opposition. This program was arranged by Dudley Wallon, chairman of the forum committee, for the purpose of giving members, and others who may care to attend the forum, an opportunity to hear both sides of the issue.

McCarthy Wants Seattle TV License Revoked

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said Friday he would ask the Federal Communications Commission to revoke the license of Seattle television station KING for keeping him off the air Thursday night.

His scheduled 15-minute telecast in Seattle was cancelled when McCarthy refused to delete two paragraphs from his prepared text.

Otto Brandt, general manager of KING, said in Seattle the station had no alternative but to insist on the deletion, and said the action was supported by KING's Seattle and Washington, D.C., lawyers.

Brandt argued that the station could have been held liable to remarks made by McCarthy since he is not a candidate in the state of Washington. FCC regulations say no licensed station has the right to censor speeches by "legally qualified candidates," but make no clear definition of how this applies to speeches in behalf of another person's candidacy.

McCarthy told newsmen in Chicago that under the FCC rules "they have no right to censor a paid political broadcast." He said the FCC has ruled that a station "is not liable for what may be said in such a case."

Second Typhoon Heads Toward Philippine Isles

MANILA (AP)—A new typhoon bore down on the Philippines Saturday with threats of more destruction even before officials had finished counting the toll from the worst tropical storm in 50 years.

The count from Typhoon Trix which hit Southern Luzon Island Tuesday and Wednesday reached 444 dead, 460 missing and 27 injured.

A Philippines Red Cross spokesman said the death toll might climb to 600 or more as late reports trickle in from isolated areas.

The new typhoon was churning its gigantic package of ravaging winds 700 miles east of Leyte Island at 2 p.m.

The Weather Bureau said it was moving in at a faster clip than Typhoon Trix and along the same path. Preliminary reports indicated it packed a more vicious punch than its predecessor which hit Southern Luzon with winds in excess of 135 miles an hour. Winds in the new typhoon, called Wilma, were estimated at 150 miles an hour velocity. It was moving north-west at 15 miles an hour.

TUNNELING UNDER A RAILROAD TRACK is ticklish business; especially when men must blast through rock. When this tunnel and about 700 feet of sewer line is completed, the North Roseburg Sanitary District's sewer system will have been fully completed. Working in a 14-foot ditch, Pre-Mix construction workers first blast solid rock, then remove the rock through the three-foot steel pipe. When rock is removed the pipe is "jacked" into the tunnel making a safe steel-cased tunnel. Heavy shoring is a necessary safety precaution while work operate air-powered jackhammers on blast in the tunnel.

Robbery Suspect Badly Wounded

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A suspect in the $248,000 robbery of two Cuban counter-revolutionists at Ft. Worth, Tex., earlier this month, was seriously wounded shortly before midnight last night by an unknown assailant.

Orville Lindsay Chambliss, currently free on $5,000 bond on a federal charge of transporting stolen money across state lines, was injured in his home when a double-barreled shotgun was poked through a window and fired. He was taken to a city hospital in serious condition.

Earlier this month at Ft. Worth, two Cubans, Manuel Fernandez Madarego and Dandido de la Cortez, claimed they were robbed of $248,000 by a man carrying a sub-machine gun. They said the bandit entered their swank cabana shortly after midnight Oct. 3.

The Cubans, who said they came to the United States from Mexico, claimed they were negotiating for the purchase of munitions to be used to overthrow the present Cuban government.

Chambliss surrendered to the shooting except to say it was a "big international deal and it makes me mad...that they would try something like that when my children were around."

A 24-hour guard was placed around his hospital room.

Scientist To Attempt Mile Deep Ocean Dive

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Otis Baron, famous undersea explorer, will try to take his bathoscaphe a mile down into the ocean today at a point about 17 miles southeast of San Clemente.

Barton made two preliminary dives in his big steel ball yesterday, found it to be operating efficiently.

The explorer's present record for a descent in the ball is 4,500 feet, made off Santa Cruz Island in 1949.

He will take cameras, film and other equipment in today's descent and be in telephone communication with his crew. He wears a parka to withstand the deep water cold, a wool shirt, skull cap, tennis shoes and blue jeans.

strong and responsible of which he always dreamed."

In his Poughkeepsie speech Stevenson departed from his recent approach—a lead from the campaign book of President Truman, who picked Eisenhower as the main target days ago and set out to sell the voters on his views.

The Democratic presidential nominee let down the bars Thursday night in Cleveland, when he accused Eisenhower of condoning a "sly and ugly campaign." He has hammered on the theme since.

It was expected to be a prominent part of his speech-making barrage as he moves from New York State into Massachusetts over pretty much the same trail Eisenhower followed earlier this week.

New York and Massachusetts are two of the key states which both parties hope to swing. New York has 45 electoral votes and Massachusetts 16—a total of 61 of the 266 needed for election.

In Massachusetts he will stop at Pittsfield, Springfield, Worcester, Framingham and finally Boston where, an aide said, he will deal with the Republican record on communism.

Granger Raps School Bill At Camas Valley Thursday

William Howes, State Grange Overseer, spoke to a group of interested Camas Valley citizens Thursday evening on the School Reorganization Bill. The talk was sponsored by the Camas Valley Grange and was held in the school cafeteria.

Howes expressed the view that school district unification would bring about other political and governmental unifications. He argued that the present measure would take away local control expressing the fear that students would be transported too far. If the measure passed, Howes said he thought there was a need of school district unification, but that this measure was not the right one to do it.

The meeting was conducted by Lee Wilson, master of the Camas Valley Grange. Wilson asked Marjorie Yoder, superintendent of the Camas Valley School to express the proponent's side for the bill.

George Edward Grammer Asks For New Trial

BALTIMORE (AP)—George Edward Grammer has asked the Baltimore supreme bench to grant him a new trial.

The 35-year-old New Yorker was convicted Thursday of murdering his wife because he was "in love with another woman."

Grammer's 33-year-old wife's body was found in her overturned car at the bottom of a Baltimore hill on the night of Aug. 19. The state charged Grammer bludgeoned her to death with a piece of metal pipe, then arranged an accident hoax to deceive police.

Arguments on the new trial move are not expected to be heard until early January. Judge Herman M. Moser has deferred sentence until the supreme bench acts.

Grammer's conviction was for first degree murder, calling for either a life sentence or death by hanging.

Vertical Rising Plane Latest Russian Claim

LONDON (AP)—The Daily Express said today Russia is experimenting with a rocket jet fighter plane that takes off and lands vertically to intercept global jet bombers.

Group Capt. Hugh Dundas, the paper's air correspondent, said the plane "needs no airfield and could operate from a forest clearing."

Dundas said the fighter, called a C2B, is 54 feet long, has a wing span of 42 feet, is 21.7 feet high, and weighs 3,874 pounds empty and 6,387 pounds loaded. First information on it came from a microfilm from a Polish technical institute where it was designed, he said.

Dundas said it was "suggested" that a parachute released from the nose of the plane and tail rocket engine as it settles straight down to the ground.

The Germans experimented with a similar idea during the war, but the only such plane they turned out disintegrated in the air, Dundas said.

Portland Council Shies At Negro Church Kick

PORTLAND (AP)—The City Council refused Thursday to go into the question of a Negro congregation's purchase of a church building in an area peopled mostly by whites.

The church building was sold by the Tifereth Israel congregation and some neighbors protested. The protests held up the sale briefly but it was completed a short time ago.

Then Thursday neighbors asked the city to do something about it on the ground it would create a traffic hazard.

Council members said it was outside the city's power to act, and Mayor Dorothy McCullough Lee added:

"And even if we did (have authority) I think it would be a very un-American thing to do."
