Hempenius - Tanner Wedding Takes Place

The church was decorated with gladioli and chrysanthemums. Mrs. Jack Miller sister of the bride was matron of honor. She traveled from Santa Rosa, Calif., to be an attendant at the wedding. Her floor length gown was of light orchid with a matching net stole. Mrs. Arnold Nashlund, Miss Pat Tucker and Miss Carolee Rutherford were bridesmaids. Their gowns were pink, yellow and pale blue satin respectively. Their stoles were of matching net.

Marsha Kelly of Myrtle Creek was flower girl and Stevie Sands was ring bearer. The candle lighters, Charlotte Sand and Donna Sundberg, wore blue strapless ballerina length formal with matching stoles.

The bridegroom's brother, Richard Hempenius of Corvallis, was best man. Ushers were Jack Miller, Arnold Nashlund and Jim Rutherford.

Gene Yates sang "Because" and "Give Me Your Hand."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a white full length gown of Chantilly lace with a sweetheart neckline. The court train was also of net and lace. Her fingertip illusion veil was held in place with a white coronet. Her bouquet was of white carnations centered with an orchid.

Following the ceremony, a reception, given by the bride's parents, was held in the church parlors. The bride's mother was dressed in a gray dress with navy accessories.

The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue suit with red accessories. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller of Santa Rosa, Calif., Mrs. Carolyn Kennedy of Grants Pass and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hempenius of Corvallis.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Hempenius wore a light grey suit with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from the bridal bouquet. Following a wedding trip to points of interest in California, the couple is now at home to their friends at 2560 No. Stephens St.

Mrs. Hempenius was graduated from Roseburg High School in 1952, and prior to her marriage was employed by Calkins Finance. Hielke Hempenius was graduated from Roseburg High School in 1950 and is now employed as a truck driver for the Pepsi Cola Bottling Company.

THE HEMPENIUS - TANNER WEDDING took place Sept. 14 at an afternoon ceremony at the First Methodist Church of Roseburg. Mrs. Hempenius is the former Sylvia Marie Tanner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Tanner of Roseburg. Rev. Meredith Groves performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 150 relatives and friends. Pictured above is the entire bridal party and below, the new Mr. and Mrs. Hempenius smile for Jay Golden of Fredrickson's Photo Lab as they slice the first piece of wedding cake.

Bunyan Organization Dates Election Dance

The prime topic under discussion at the joint dinner meeting of the Paul and Paula Bunyans held at Carl's Haven Wednesday evening, was the Election Night Dance to be held at the Armory Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. The Paula Bunyans have accepted the task of decorating the hall, and according to word received from the Paulas, Mrs. Bill Endicott is chairman of the decorating committee, and will use the political motif.

The female counterpart will also have charge of the concessions where coffee, donuts and soft drinks will be served. Scheduled on the agenda is a pre-dance parade. The details of the parade will be announced later. All State Candidates have been invited to attend.

Arrangements have been made for the broadcasting of the election returns through the facilities of KRRR directly from the Armory. Music for dancing will emanate from the Orchestras of Dick Strayer and Lou Franco and his Happy Valley Cowboys.

The public is urged to attend for election returns straight from the source, refreshments and dancing to popular or western music.
