Slot Machines' Knockout Holds In Washington

OLYMPIA (AP) — The state supreme court Wednesday refused to reconsider its earlier decision outlawing slot machines in Washington State.

A petition for a rehearing of the case was filed by the Brotherhood of Friends, a Spokane club, last month.

It was denied when Chief Justice E. W. Schwelbach filed a formal denial with the clerk of the court.

The action dealt the final death blow to slots in Washington.

They had been permitted in private clubs under provisions of a 1937 state law. That law was held unconstitutional, however, in the high court's 7 to 2 ruling Sept. 2.

All nine judges signed the formal denial of the Spokane club for a rehearing and reconsideration of the decision.

Most county law enforcement officers already have ordered slots removed from clubs on the basis of the Sept. 2 decision.

Those that have permitted them to remain for the high court's final action, are expected to order them removed immediately in compliance with the supreme court ruling.

Democrats Long Out Of Control Of Oregon Govt.

By PAUL W. HARVEY JR.

SALEM (AP) — It's been so long since the Democrats had control of Oregon's state government that most people now living can't remember it.

There hasn't been a Democratic secretary of state since 1878. The last Democratic attorney general served in 1885. The only Democratic state official now is Walter J. Pearson, state treasurer.

The Democrats now think they have a good chance to win those three offices next Tuesday. They claim they have the strongest ticket they have had in many years, and many Republicans freely admit that.

Those three positions are the only state offices to be filled at the general election. The campaigns for these offices, while overshadowed by the hectic presidential race, have been hard.

The Democrats hope the presidential race will lure sometimes reluctant Democratic voters to the polls.

It's an odd campaign. While each of the candidates is working hard, I couldn't find in touring the state in the past few days that people were very much interested in these state offices. Their eyes are focussed on the bitter presidential struggle.

As far as these candidates for state offices are concerned, nobody wants to be very mad at anybody.
