

SUNSET GARDEN CLUB ENJOYS RECENT OUTING

The Sunset Garden Club enjoyed a field day Tuesday, Oct. 21. The ladies met at 10:30 at the home of Mrs. Leo Manske where they viewed the progress she has made in building her fish pond, rock garden and patio. From there, they visited Mrs. Lew Shigley where they visited the sack lunches. Later, they visited the gardens of Mrs. A. M. Johnson and studied her outstanding collection of chrysanthemums which were beginning to bloom.

The ladies attending were Mrs. Decia Taylor, Mrs. R. B. Harryman, Mrs. Neva Conrad, Mrs. Mayme Manske, Mrs. Eleanor Shigley and Mrs. A. M. Johnson. The next meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 4 at the home of Mrs. R. B. Harryman on Kent Creek in Dillard. The project for the day will be digging up evergreens for transplanting from the Harryman acreage. It is requested that all members bring any material they have concerning the storing of summer bulbs for winter, such as gladioli and dahlias. The meeting will be a noon potluck luncheon.

WCSO OF METHODIST CHURCH PLANS BAZAAR

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church will hold the annual bazaar Nov. 7 at the church from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

There will be aprons, fancy work, dish towels, plants, candy, cooked-food and tamales for sale. An antique display will be shown in the coffee shop where coffee and doughnuts will be served all day. Proceeds from this section will be given to the Methodist home in Salem. Anyone having antiques for the display may bring them to the church at one p.m. Thursday, Nov. 6, or contact Mrs. Brown at 3-6098 or Mrs. Scott at 3-6767 for information.

GLIDE PTA TO HAVE MEETING MONDAY

There will be a regular meeting of the Glide PTA Monday, Nov. 3 at 7:30 p.m. at the Glide Elementary School.

SUTHERLIN REBEKAH LODGE ENTERTAINS ODD FELLOWS RECENTLY

A very lovely affair Friday evening was the seven o'clock potluck dinner given by the members of the Sutherlin Rebekah Lodge No. 218, when they entertained the Odd Fellows and future Odd Fellows at the Sutherlin Grange Hall. The long tables were decorated in the lodge colors of pink and green with centerpieces of mums flanked by tall pink tapers. Covers were placed for about seventy persons. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. High of Roseburg were present, and Mr. High gave a very interesting talk on Odd Fellowship. He explained the requirements needed to organize a IOOF Lodge in Sutherlin. Six past-noble grands were present, and 26 men signed the petition.

A program was enjoyed. Two piano solos, "Poem" and "Marzetta," were played by Theodore Haberly; Caleb Standafer, played "Hills of Home" and "Toreador Song" on the slide-trombone, accompanied at the piano by Mr. Haberly. Two dance numbers were given by Dessa Fae Barber. Jean Wheeler was nominated as chairman to go ahead with plans for an IOOF Lodge. Ray Parker is secretary. A meeting will be held at the Sutherlin Grange Hall Friday evening, Oct. 31.

GLENDALE JOB'S DAUGHTERS HOLD RECENT INITIATION

The Glendale Chapter of Job's Daughters held an initiation meeting at the IOOF Hall Monday evening, Oct. 2 at 8 p.m.

Initiated with the impressive rites of the order were the Misses Lenore Smith and Marjorie Smith, both of Glendale. Following the initiation and business meeting, a Halloween party was held with Mrs. Edward Harris acting as hostess. Each girl had invited a guest, and dancing and games were the order of the evening. At the close of the evening, the hostess served traditional Halloween refreshments.

There will be talks and discussions on the bills concerning schools in the coming election.

TENMILE LADIES CLUB POTLUCK HELD TUESDAY

The Tenmile Ladies Club met Tuesday at the clubhouse for their regular all-day meeting and potluck dinner. Mrs. Thelma Stringer and Mrs. Ruth Welch were hostesses.

Mr. Yoder, principal of the Camas Valley school, was a guest speaker in the afternoon. He explained the School Reorganization Bill and other school measures to be voted on in the coming election.

Members of the club are preparing Christmas packages to send to the boys in the service. At a later date they are going to make cookies for veterans in the Veterans' Hospital.

Those present were Mrs. Clara Perry and grandchildren, Gail and Donald Max Perry, guests; and the Mesdames Wanda Adams and Susan; Julia Breitenbuecher, Louisa Coats, Blanche Degner, Amy Erbe, Vera Erbe, Hazel Ison, Irene Lockwood and Carole; Minnie Lockwood, Kate Mack, Minnie Mellus, Maureen Muetzel, Josie Smith, Thelma Stringer and Betty and Marvin; Gladys Welch and Ruth Welch and Brenda and Kathy.

The next regular date for the club meeting will be skipped because of Election Day. The next meeting will be held at the clubhouse Tuesday, Nov. 18. The hostesses will be Wanda Adams and Minnie Mellus.

ROSE PTA TO MEET NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

Rose School Parent-Teachers Association will meet Monday evening, Nov. 3 at 7:30 o'clock in the school gymnasium. The topic is to be a discussion of the Holy Bill for school re-organization. The speakers will be M. C. Deller, Roseburg School Superintendent, and Kenneth Barneburg, County School Superintendent.

As this issue should be of particular interest to all members, the officers are urging a full attendance of members.

ASSOCIATED BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB HAS PARTY

One of the most charming parties of the fall season was held Monday evening when the Associated Business Women's Club entertained their husbands at a delicious seven o'clock potluck dinner at the American Legion Memorial Hall in Sutherlin with Mrs. Ora Irwin, Mrs. Juanita Atterbury, Mrs. Donna Dean Blakeley and Mrs. Betty Correll as hostesses. The Halloween motif was carried out in the table decorations.

Covers were placed for: Mr. and Mrs. Wesley (Curly) Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Atterbury, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. John Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. William Blakeley, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pond, Mrs. Cora Allen, Miss Luella Pleward, Mrs. Ivena Halvorsen, Mrs. Ad McCall, Mrs. Ora Irwin and the guest of honor, Miss Phyllis Pond.

Miss Pond, the club's princess in the Timber Days celebration, was guest of honor and was presented with a lovely gift from the club.

Card games were enjoyed during the evening with high scores being won by Phyllis Pond and second high, Ralph Anderson.

The next meeting of the club will be held Monday evening, Nov. 17. The place and hostesses will be announced later.

THACHER-WALLACE AUXILIARY TO SPONSOR HALLOWEEN PARTIES

In an effort to get the children off the streets and to eliminate the hoards of "trick and treaters," the Thacher-Wallace Auxiliary No. 7752 is having two big Halloween parties for the elementary school children of the Myrtle Creek and Tri City area.

These parties will be free for the children and parents, including free noise makers, hats and candy. There will be an hour long show of comedies and two grand prizes. The children are requested to come in costume if they can and if not to attend anyway. Sixteen first and second prizes will be given for the most original costumes. Also around 80 prizes will be given for games.

One party, for pre-school children up through the fourth grades, will be held at the Melody Mountain Barn, south of Myrtle Creek, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Oct. 31, Halloween night. Another party for children in the fifth through the eighth grades will be held at the Myrtle Creek High School gym from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Parents are requested to furnish transportation to and from the parties. They will be well chaperoned by the member of the post and auxiliary, and are supported by the local merchants, school authorities and ministers of the town.

The Myrtle Creek and Tri-City business people, merchants and the organizations have donated presents and cash donations. All children are invited to attend these parties.

PAST MATRONS CLUB PLANS MONDAY SESSION
