

Mercy Hospital Auxiliary Sponsors Successful Tea And Card Party Monday

ONE OF THE MOST successful benefit parties to be given in Roseburg was enjoyed Monday afternoon, Oct. 27, when the members of the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary entertained at a card party and tea at the Roseburg Woman's clubhouse. Contract bridge, canasta and pinocle were in play from one to four o'clock.

CONGRATULATIONS have been extended to Mrs. Hall Seely and Mrs. Victor Bakala, general chairmen of the party, for the success of the affair. There were 33 tables of cards in play. Contract bridge prizes were awarded to Mrs. A. J. Murray, first; Mrs. Harold E. Schmeer, second, and Mrs. E. O. Rickli, third. The pinocle prize was won by Mrs. Verdun Boucock and the canasta prize went to Miss Anna Link. The door prize was won by Mrs. Harry S. Black.

THE TEA committee was headed by Mrs. W. F. Amiot, who was assisted by Mrs. William Lassiter, Mrs. Charles Cring, Mrs. O. R. Fritz, Mrs. Ronald Raade, Mrs. Louis Thurber and Miss Anna Link. An elaborate array of tea sandwiches, cookies and cakes were served between the hours of four and five-thirty o'clock.

A FEW OF THE COMMITTEE members recently met at the Paul Jenkins home in Laurelwood, at which time the above pictures were taken by Mr. Jenkins.

1. Mrs. A. J. Young, Mrs. Robert Hatterscheid and Mrs. Leland K. Wimberly
2. Mrs. Herbert Weisgerber, Mrs. Charles Cring and Mrs. J. C. Hume.
3. Mrs. O. R. Fritz, Mrs. J. G. Verberkmoes and Mrs. Paul K. Ryan.
4. Mrs. James B. Kilkenny, Mrs. Victor Bakala and Mrs. R. Parsons.
5. Mrs. Paul Jenkins and Mrs. Nobel Goettle.
6. Mrs. Walter Welker, Mrs. Hall Seely and Mrs. Robert Foye.
7. Mrs. J. A. Harding.

A SPECIAL FEATURE of the party was the planter flower pots given as high score prizes at every table. The hand-decorated flower pots were arranged by Mrs. Cliff Pennell and Mrs. Stephen Kiss. Bright-colored geraniums, fuchsias, azaleas and planter greenery were used to fill the planters.

CARDS were in charge of Mrs. R. R. Parsons, chairman, Mrs. Paul K. Ryan, Mrs. I. J. Bean, Mrs. A. J. Murray, Mrs. Mike Dilley and Mrs. Herbert Weisgerber. Reservations, in charge of Mrs. Robert Hatterscheid, Mrs. Nelson Howard and Mrs. J. A. Colbrunn with Mrs. Edward Montgomery and Mrs. Don Jeppesen serving on the telephone committee. Hostesses included: Mrs. Fredrick J. Porter, Mrs. James B. Kilkenny, Mrs. S. V. O'Reilly, Mrs. Walter Welker, Mrs. Robert Foye, Mrs. Hedwig Watzig and Mrs. Leland K. Wimberly.

THE ELABORATELY decorated tea table was arranged by Mrs. Paul Jenkins, Mrs. Nobel Goettle and Mrs. J. G. Verberkmoes. The table was centered with a large arrangement of dahlias, zinnias and cattails, flanked by candelabra holding lighted candles in shades of brown, yellow and chartreuse, which in turn were flanked by colorful fruits and gourds. Additional guests called during the tea hours.

POURING during the tea hours were: Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, wife of Congressman Ellsworth; Mrs. A. J. Young, Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mrs. Hall Seely and Mrs. J. G. Verberkmoes. The attractive Halloween tallies used for the card play were designed and made by Betty Lou Tauscher.
