Florida Wedding Told

MISS EVA MAE FORBES of Ocala, Fla., and Lloyd V. Holgate of Sutherlin, were married Saturday evening, Oct. 18, at 8 p.m. in the First Methodist Church of Ocala. Performing the double ring ceremony was the Rev. George Foster, in a candlelight setting of white gladioli and palms.

Soloist was Mrs. Boyd Williams who sang "Because," "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," "The Lord's Prayer," and a program of traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. O. A. Lowe.

Given in marriage by her father, George Davis Forbes, the bride had for her matron of honor, her sister, Mrs. Quintin NeSmith of Williston, Fla., and bridesmaids were the Misses Georgia Forbes and Peggy Reynolds of Ocala. Vern L. Holgate, father of the bridegroom, Sutherlin, was best man. Ushers were Jim Statham, Bill Robinson and Charles Sigmon, all of Ocala, and Gordon Holgate of Sutherlin.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin featuring a sweetheart neckline filled in with net, and a wide lace Bertha. The fitted bodice buttoned down the back with tiny self-covered buttons and had long sleeves which came to points over the hands. The full skirt extended to form a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a Chantilly lace cap and she carried a wing-shaped bouquet of feathered carnations centered with a lavender orchid and placed on a white Bible. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. NeSmith wore a gown of cinnamon brown taffeta made on lines similar to that of the bride. Her mitts and hair ornament were of the same color and she carried a cascade bouquet of bronze Fuji mums tied with chartreuse ribbon. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns of forest green taffeta with Bertha collars and bouffant skirts. Their mitts and hair ornaments matched their dresses and they carried bouquets of green chrysanthemums tied with green ribbon.

Marsha Metzger and Deborah Funari as flower girls wore identical dresses of yellow taffeta with square collars and ruffled skirts and yellow hair ornaments. George Hubert NeSmith of Williston was the ring bearer.

Mrs. Forbes wore a dress of orchid lace with an orchid corsage, while Mrs. Holgate wore a lace and crepe dress of dusty rose and an orchid corsage.

The parents of the bride entertained at a reception immediately following the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride's table was overlaid with a linen damask cloth. White gladioli and greenery were used in the party room.

The bride's book was kept by Miss Martha Jones, and Mrs. Jim Statham, Miss Betty Moxley, Miss Dolly Ann Matney, Mrs. Ethel Parsons, Mrs. O. J. Roundtree and Mrs. Marshall Landell assisted in the hospitalities.
