

PRESENTATION OF CHARTER to the Dillard-Winston Toastmistress Club was made Saturday evening at the Roseburg Woman's clubhouse at the installation and charter dinner. The charter presentation was made by Cornelia Moore, Florence, Ore., chairman of Council 3, at far right of picture. Others in the picture include from left to right: Mona Hult, club representative; Daisy Fox, secretary; Viola Nichols, treasurer; Zilpha McAllister, vice president; Donelda Trobaugh, president. (Picture by Master Studio).

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS of the Dillard-Winston toastmistress Club took place at the Saturday dinner meeting at the Woman's clubhouse. Left to right: Mona Hult, representative; Zilpha McAllister, vice president; Donelda Trobaugh, president; Daisy Fox, secretary; Viola Nichols, treasurer, and Celia Day installing officer. (Picture by Master Studio).

A large and interesting affair of Saturday evening at the Woman's clubhouse was the Dillard-Winston Toastmistress Club installation and charter dinner.

The invocation was given by Daisy Fox. Editha Ritchie gave

CASSANDRA BIDWELL HONORED AT PARTY

Miss Cassandra Sue Bidwell was guest of honor at her sixth birthday party held at her home at Winchester Sunday. Games were played after which Miss Bidwell opened her gifts.

Refreshments were then served to Linda Delster, Sherrie Thomas, Lysabeth Sherman, Barbara Miller, Dennis and Chris Wright, Roger, Brenda and Cheryl Carr. Assisting Mrs. Bidwell with the refreshments were Mrs. Margaret Carr and Phyllis Wright.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT E. LANDIS, above, were married in Reno, Nev., Oct. 9. Mrs. Landis is the former Patsy Jo Anne Andrus. They are leaving for San Diego, where Mr. Landis will report for duty, Nov. 5. (Picture by Fredrickson's Photo Lab).

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB officers are pictured above and include, front row, left to right: Mrs. Robert Yantis, Mrs. V. W. Schuetz, Mrs. Ken Metzler, Mrs. Van Svarverud and Mrs. Howard Haas. Back row, left to right: Mrs. Ken Bushey, Mrs. Francis Brown, Mrs. Don Shelton and Mrs. W. M. Miles. In the picture below are the new members of the club. Front row, left to right: Mrs. Byron Fish, Mrs. Paul Garren, Mrs. Lewis Wilson, Mrs. Harold Zurcher and Mrs. Marvin Summers. Back row: Mrs. Lloyd Walker, Mrs. Roy Horton, Mrs. Richard Ballantyne, Mrs. James Berwick and Mrs. Alvin Hoffman. (Pictures by Betty Tauscher).

The Roseburg Woman's clubhouse was the scene of the candle-light initiation ceremony for the new members of the Junior Woman's Club, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Francis Brown, president, read the impressive ceremony and Mrs. Ken Bushey, Senior Advisor, read the club rogation. Each new member was presented with a corsage at the close of the ceremony. Mrs. Brown also presented corsages to all the officers and to Mrs. Bushey.

The group enjoyed hearing Miss Janet Malone, who sang several vocal selections. Mrs. Dick Crenshaw accompanied her at the piano. Refreshments were served from a lace-covered table centered with an arrangement of fall flowers and flanked by yellow tapers.

Hostesses were Mrs. V. W. Schuetz and Mrs. Elmer Giles. Guests were: Mrs. Paul Garren, Mrs. Byron Fish, Mrs. Alvin Hoffman, Mrs. Harold Zurcher, Mrs. Richard Ballantyne, Mrs. Marvin Summers, Mrs. James Berwick, Mrs. Lloyd Walker, Mrs. Roy Horton, Mrs. Lewis Wilson, Mrs. Van Svarverud, Mrs. Robert Yantis, Mrs. Estell McGhehey, Mrs. Jack Brookins, Mrs. Howard Haas, Mrs. Francis Brown, Mrs. Lowell Hamm, Mrs. Galen Matthews, Miss Betty Tauscher, Miss Virginia Riebling, Mrs. William Miles, Mrs. Ken Bushey, Mrs. Robert Green and Mrs. Don Shelton.

WADITAKA CAMP FIRE GIRLS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Leon Hughes entertained the Glide Waditaka Camp Fire girls with a Halloween costume party at her home on Little River last Friday evening.

Games, gadgets, ghost stories, songs and refreshments were enjoyed by Linda Moore, Beverly Reetz, Mary Shelton, Judy Roberts, Gail Kelly, Juanita Cole, Albin Hopper, Afton Ramsey, Wynona Sunderland, Patricia Cudmore, Neola Miller, Phyllis Singleton, Norma Baker, Elaine Sinnott, Jo Ann Franks, Jolene Miller, Shirley Ann Scott, Mrs. Hughes, the hostess, and new guardian, Mrs. Ruby Weaver, guardian, and Mrs. Mildred Sunderland, assistant.

Other members of the group who were unable to attend were Anne Caroline Kinne and Jeanette Perry.

DAUGHTER IS BORN

A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Dixon at St. Ignace, Mont., Oct. 22. Mrs. Dixon's mother, Mrs. C. E. Puckett, has been with her son-in-law and daughter for the past three months, and expects to return to her Roseburg home by Thanksgiving. The new arrival weighed six pounds two ounces.

Mr. Puckett was unable to be in Montana because of his business affiliations.

LUNCHEON HONORS MRS. KLIVER AT JORAS HOME

Mrs. Barbara Kliver was complimented at a one o'clock luncheon given by Mrs. Jo Joras at her home in Winston Monday.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with bouquets of zinnias, snapdragons and asters in shades of pink and blue.

After the opening of the gifts a surprise shower of items suitable for a grandmother-to-be was given Mrs. Edna Kliver. Mrs. Van Darling was also presented with a lovely set of glassware in honor of her birthday.

Those attending included: guest of honor, Mrs. Barbara Kliver, Sadie Stack, Mrs. Alice Taylor, Mrs. Edna Kliver, Mrs. Van Darling, Mrs. Gilda Darling, Mrs. Alice Taylor, Mrs. Oma Stutsman, Mrs. Mary Arthur, Mrs. Vera Rich rdson, Mrs. Doris Cretton, Mrs. Arla Woods, Mrs. Bertha Lee Bailey, Mrs. Mary Lee Weinberg, Mrs. Fern Bailey, Mrs. Barbara Phillips, Mrs. Irene Miller, Mrs. Adina Rand and the hostess, Mrs. Jo Joras.

Sending gifts but unable to attend were Mrs. Phoebe McGuire and Mrs. Mary Huckins.

MRS. RALPH WILEY, left, and Mrs. Robert Kent, right, in the picture above, were among those attending the annual state convention of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority held recently in Portland.

Mrs. Ralph Wiley, Mrs. Craig Short and Mrs. Robert Kent, of Alpha Iota Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, have returned from the first Annual State Convention of the Sorority held in Portland last weekend.

A Poke Bonnet Social, Friday night, served as an introduction for the 275 delegates from Oregon and Washington who attended. Forums were held Saturday morning followed by a luncheon in the Rose Bowl of the Multnomah Hotel, Convention Headquarters. Greetings at this luncheon were extended by Governor Douglas McKay and the main speaker was Frank Branch Riley. A comedy style show of bathing suits from yesterday to tomorrow was delightfully presented with Helen Lauterstein of the Portland

Civic Theatre as Fashion Commentator.

Walter W. Ross, Founder of Beta Sigma Phi, was the guest speaker at the formal banquet held Saturday evening. Prior to his address, his attractive wife was presented with a bouquet of red roses by the Royal Rosarians and Mr. Ross was invited to attend the Rose Festival next June and be knighted into the Court of Rosaria. A ball followed the banquet.

Sunday morning brunch was the final affair of the festivities. Mayor Dorothy Lee welcomed the delegates and the main address was given by Margaret P. Johnson.

A very impressive closing ritual was held to complete a very successful convention.

A HALLOWEEN PARTY was held by Beta Iota Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha, Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Doris Dorch. Babbling for apples and other suitable games were played. The Halloween motif was carried out in the decorations. Those present were, front row, left to right: Mrs. Dick Stark, Mrs. Jerry Willis, Mrs. Jack Denton, Mrs. Don Kruse, Mrs. John Morgan. Second row: Mrs. Dorish Dorch, Mrs. Ray Ward, Mrs. Rodney Peterson, Mrs. Dick Busby and Miss Rose Emily Band. Back row: Mrs. George Siroop, Mrs. Dale Woodruff, Mrs. Liz Curtis, Mrs. Don Morgan, Mrs. Fred Stora Jr., and Mrs. Myrtis Peterson. (Picture by Fredrickson's Photo Lab).

CHRISTMAS IN OCTOBER was held by Women of the Moose Monday evening at the hall, at which time gifts were brought to be sent to the children at Mooseheart in Illinois. A bicycle has been purchased to be sent to the adopted Evelyn Kuper from the Roseburg Women of the Moose. Refreshments were served. Left to right in the above picture are: Hazel Jameson, Senior Regent; Winnifred Steele, Mooseheart committee chairman, and Lucille Crow, recorder. (Picture by Miller-Moderne).

Mrs. James Knudtson Complimented At Party

A pink and blue shower was given this week in honor of Mrs. James Knudtson at the home of Mrs. Norman Hess, 1306 Myrtlewood Pl. in Stewart Meadow. Mrs. Verdon Boucock and Mrs. Walter Welker were co-hostesses.

The rooms were decorated with chrysanthemums and roses, and the autumn motif was carried out. During the evening hours, pinocle was played. Prizes were won by Mrs. Clyde Knight, Mrs. Ed Radigan, Mrs. Perry Thiele and Mrs. Henry Bailey.

Present for the festivities were the Mesdames Bob Davis, Harold Cacy, Henry Bailey, Ed Radigan, Clyde Knight, Ray Puckett, Perry Thiele, Bob Foye, Walter Allen, Ralph Wiley, Paul Ryan, Bob Grant, the honor guest, Mrs. James Knudtson, and the hostesses, Mrs. Norman Hess, Mrs. Verdon Boucock and Mrs. Walter Welker.

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were Mrs. Ralph Ohman, Mrs. Lyle Fenner and Mrs. Floyd Colburn.

MRS. LAWSON BELL IS HONORED WITH SHOWER

Mrs. Jack Toi and Mrs. Cliff Ferber were hostesses at a pink and blue shower given in honor of Mrs. Lawson Bell at the home of Mrs. Cliff Ferber in Hu Crest Tuesday evening Oct. 28.

An umbrella topped bassinet, trimmed in pink and blue, was on a table and the gifts were placed in it.

Games and visiting were enjoyed during the evening. After the opening of the gifts, refreshments were served. Mrs. Bert Brewer cut the cake, which was decorated with miniature booties in pink and blue.

Those present were the Mesdames Gere Holcomb, Bill Reed, William Elliott, Jack Williams, Fred Wieler, Jack Tol and Mrs. Cliff Finner.

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were Mrs. Jimmy Mitchell, Mrs. D. Tomlinson, Maxine Shilman and Mrs. Evans.

MR. AND MRS. BAKKEN ENTERTAIN AT DINNER ON TUESDAY EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bakken entertained at a wild duck and goose dinner Tuesday evening.

Those enjoying the dinner with the Bakkens and their sons, Clarence and Howard, were Cliff Hudson, Gerald Denner, Bob Fuller, Walter Tolles and Joe Webster who shot the wild fowl at Klamath Falls.

ALPHA IOTA CHAPTER HAS RECENT SESSION

Alpha Iota Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Robert Kent, Calkins Road, with Mrs. Bill Gray as co-hostess.

Plans were made for a square dance party to be held Nov. 14 at the Riversdale Grange, for members and invited guests.

Mrs. Craig Short gave a very interesting program on jewelry. A Halloween party followed the business meeting. Members and guests were dressed in costume representing the "Roaring Twenties."

A movie was shown of Laurel and Hardy fitting this same era.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Kent to the Mesdames John Carrigg, Robert Davie, Joe Dent, Gerald Dunnagan, Harry Hill, Pat Jannelli, George Krueger, Joe Olsen, Don O'Neil, Craig Short, John Trozelle, Ralph Wiley, Bill Weber, Donald Morgan and Mrs. Ronald Oilar were guests.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Bill Weber, with Mrs. Pat Jannelli as co-hostess. Mrs. Harry Hill and Mrs. Pat Jannelli will present the program "The History of Dress."

ULAH RHODEN TO ACCEPT FEW BALLET STUDENTS AT STUDIO

Ralph Patterson of the Roseburg School of Dancing has announced that Ulah Rhoden, former ballet teacher in Roseburg, has accepted the position of taking a few students on Mondays at his studio on Kane Street.

Mrs. Rhoden has been studying and dancing with Mr. Patterson since he came to Roseburg so they both teach the same ballet technique. On account of having a family, Mrs. Rhoden is limiting her teaching time. Those interested in this opportunity are asked to call the Roseburg School of Dancing.

VISIT IN SUTHERLIN

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald F. Bringle of Portland spent Sunday in Sutherlin. The occasion was the birthday of Mr. Bringle's father, F. E. Bringle. During the day, several of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bringle's children called.

MRS. M. SORY FETES SUNSHINE CLUB AT SESSION ON THURSDAY

Mrs. M. Sory entertained the Sunshine Club and a guest at a party Thursday evening. A jack-o-lantern greeted those attending.

The rooms were decorated with dahlias, roses and chrysanthemums. The buffet table centerpiece was made of grapes and apples surrounded by witches and favors on a black and orange table cloth.

A short business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. M. Sory. Then, a silent auction was held. Games were enjoyed for the remainder of the evening.

Mrs. Ingles won high prize and Mrs. E. Princen and Miss Bernardine Princen tied for second high.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to a guest, Mrs. Agnes Waer; Mrs. Phil Hart, Mrs. E. E. Emmitt, Mrs. E. Princen, Miss Bernard Princen, Mrs. William Steigwig, and the hostess, Mrs. M. Sory.

The next meeting place and date will be announced later.

PROMOTION RECEIVED

Word has been received by Mrs. Lewis E. Jones of Roseburg of the promotion of her son, Lowell E. Jones, to BM 3-c. He is serving on the USS Essex in Korean waters.