Ducks Practice Passing Attack For Cougar Tilt

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — The Oregon passing attack came in for close attention Thursday in the Webfoots' practice for Saturday's homecoming football game with Washington State College.
Coach Len Casanova pointed out the Ducks completed only nine passes against College of the Pacific last week. Previously, Oregon's passing attack had been its main ground-gainer.
The WSC team was due here Friday for a workout on Hayward Field.

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) — Coach Al Kircher ran the Washington State Cougars through a light workout Thursday, then loaded them aboard a train for Eugene, Ore., and Saturday's Pacific Coast Conference gridiron meeting with Oregon.
Another workout was scheduled Friday at Eugene.

THE MAN WHO PUT DEMPSEY TO SLEEP is caught in the act in the picture above. Referee Jack Dempsey apparently wasn't pleasing "Judo Jack" Terry with his calls because he ended the match a victim of the latter's deadly sleeper hold. Dempsey won't be in the local Armory ring this Saturday night, but "Judo Jack" will, as the opponent of Mr. Sakata. This main event is coupled with the wrestling semi-final which pits Billy Sandow against Tai Yamato. Tony Ross and Art Kapitan tangle in the special event.

First Methodist Church and M and H Market continued their hot battle for Commercial League bowling honors at the Roseburg Alleys last night as each picked up three points.

The Methodists conquered Yoncalla Lions, and M and H defeated Wayne's Shoe Store.
Schwartz Clothing scored the top game series of 2,684 and Nyberg Lumber posted the top game of 896. Individually, Chrystalite's Earl Sargent regained his winning form to post the high game of 227 and the top series of 629.

University High In Playoffs

By The Associated Press
University High of Eugene banged into the state football playoffs Thursday night, and six more high schools intend to follow suit this week end.

University High won the district 5 title in class 2 play by downing Sacred Heart of Salem in a play-off, 14-6, at Salem. That leaves four more titles to be decided in class 2 this week end.

Two other district championships will be decided in class 1 before the state playoffs start next week end.

The top game comes at North Bend, where the state's No. 1 team, Marshfield, tangles in a traditional battle with neighboring North Bend. The North Bend team was ranked No. 6 in the latest Associated Press poll.

Favored Marshfield goes into the game undefeated and untied. North Bend has lost one game. The winner is expected to be the district 5 representative in the playoffs.

The only other class 1 berth still undecided is in district 8, where Albany meets traditional rival Corvallis. A win for favored Albany would give that team a tie with Bend. A district vote would be necessary to determine the team to enter the playoffs. A Corvallis win would hand the title to Bend.

Ray Perkins, sophomore half-back, plays 60 minutes for Syracuse University's footballers. He is the safety man on defense.
