STEPHEN THOMPSON HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Thompson entertained at a costume Halloween birthday party, Wednesday evening, Oct. 29, honoring their son, Stephen, on his eighth birthday, at their lovely new home on East Terrace Lane. The Halloween decorations were carried throughout, with a tunnel of horror each youngster had to crawl through before entering the house. Games were enjoyed and Stephen received many nice gifts from his friends.

Two beautifully decorated birthday cakes were cut and served with ice cream at a lace covered table with favors of candy apples on a stick, horns and whistles. Mrs. Thompson, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Margaret Kincart of Cottage Grove, and Mrs. W. H. Kincart, an aunt from Albany, served the following guests: Billie and Bobbie Karcher, Marvin and Michael Slack, Gerald and Nickie Bolman, Loren Fisher, Eric Waugh, Mike Peterick, and the guest of honor, Stephen Thompson.
