Two Roseburg Soldiers In Army-Navy Maneuver

Two Roseburg men left Camp Cooke, Calif., this week to take part in "Exercise 'Phib Test,'" a joint army-navy training maneuver to be held along the coast of Southern California during November.

Arthur, son of Mrs. Alta V. Arthur, son of Cpl. Leon C. Arney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arney— are with the 74th amphibious tank and tractor battalion.

Animal husbandmen advise against breeding heifers until they weigh at least 700 pounds.

The two — Cpl. Raymond F.

FROM NINE TO FIVE

I'm really too sick to even be out of bed. I only came down to get my pay, shop a little, have a permanent and maybe take in a matinee.

Maj. Gen. S. D. Surgis New Head Of Engineers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army Saturday named Maj. Gen. Samuel D. Surgis, Jr., to be the new chief of army engineers, succeeding Lt. Gen. Lewis A. Pick, who will retire at the end of this month upon reaching the statutory retirement age of 62.

Secretary of the Army Frank Pace said Surgis, presently commander of the communication zone of the Army in Europe, will take over his new job as soon as he is able to close out the business of his present command.

However, Pace said, this probably will mean that Surgis will have to remain in Europe for some time after the effective date of his new assignment, Dec. 1. During that time, Maj. Gen. George J. Nold, deputy chief of engineers, will be the acting head of the corps.

No successor has been selected yet to replace Surgis in the European command.
