Russia Still Leading In Submarine Power

LONDON (AP) — Britain's authoritative naval yearbook, Jane's Fighting Ships, says the Soviet Union's submarine fleet still is by far the world's largest although it appears to be the same size as a year ago.

The 1952-53 yearbook, published yesterday, reported the same number of Russian undersea craft as in its last edition—370 afloat and 120 others being built. Jane's acknowledged, however, that Soviet military security limited the exactness of the information.

Jane's reported the U. S. Navy's "colossal fighting force" is the largest peacetime fleet ever maintained by any country—as big as all the other navies of the world combined.

The U. S. Submarine force of 200 ships, however, was greatly outclassed by the Russians. Britain's subs were listed at about 50.

The Eastern Oregon representative said here Wednesday night that he thought there was a 50-50 chance for such a session. He noted that an increase must be voted before January if it is to affect the 83rd Congress.

Stockman is leaving office this year. He declined to run again. Sam Coon, Baker Republican, will succeed him.

Staggering American Debt, Private, Corporate, Federal, Totals About $590 Billion

NEW YORK (AP) — Americans are going into hock at a record rate. Private debt has doubled since the end of World War II. The rate of increase is the steepest on record.

Corporate debt has climbed 82 per cent. Debts of individuals and unincorporated businesses have gone up 120 per cent. Together these groups, owing 141 billion dollars in 1945, now approach a debt total of 300 billion dollars.

Add this to the nearly 285 billion dollars that the federal government owes, and the state and local government indebtedness of 27 billion dollars (twice what it was in 1945), and you have a total of around 590 billion dollars.

Bankers say the private debt is not out of line with the increased national income, which was 277 billion dollars last year and will be higher this year.

In contrast, private debt in 1929 was 161 billion dollars, nearly double national income of 87 billion that year.

Bankers Scant Danger — Some bankers, however, fret over the dangers they see in the present situation.

First, they worry about the rate of growth in private debt—doubled in the past six years, while in the six years before 1929 it rose only 49 per cent.

And the last three years have seen the sharpest rise in debt. Private debt jumped 36 billion dollars in 1950, went up another 31 billion last year, and is expected to increase by another 33 billion this year.

Corporation plans indicate there'll be at least a temporary post-election upswing in debt offerings—most of them to finance expansion plans.

Second, some bankers worry lest something might turn the economy downward, since national income, and put part of the private debt in jeopardy.

Much of the debt is in the form of investment in plant expansions. Many hold that certain industries now have much greater production capacities than present civilian demand justifies.

It will take time, bankers argue, before the normal growth of demand, plus the normal repayment of debt, will work off any excesses in capacity and in corporate and individual debts.

set a new record because the combined output of meat animals, poultry products, milk and wool is by far the largest in history and big enough to offset the 1948 advantage in crops.

Topping this year's crops is a corn yield of 3,303,000,000 bushels, also the second largest on record. This is 10 per cent larger than the average corn crop and nearly 12 per cent larger than last year's crop.

Helping the situation is the fact that this year's corn is of good-to-excellent quality in contrast with last year's poor quality crop. The livestock feed grain supply for the current year has been exceeded in only five seasons—1942, 1946, 1948, 1949 and 1950.
