Non-Bowl Gridders Move Into Limelight Saturday

NEW YORK—The 1952 college football season, an extravagant production from the opening curtain, moves toward the closing scenes tomorrow with the current bowl game contenders in supporting roles and two non-bowl teams taking over the center of the stage.

Conference crowns and roles in the Jan. 1 bowl extravaganzas will be awarded the winners of several key games, but all must give way to Notre Dame - Michigan clash at East Lansing, Mich., as the day's top attraction. Notre Dame pulled the upset of the week last Saturday in topping Oklahoma, and the big question now is can the Fighting Irish do it again against the nation's No. 1 team. Knocking off the nation's best and ending a 22-game winning streak are not the only incentives for Notre Dame, however. State's hard-running stable of backs ran up a 35-0 score on the Irish last year, and that's the worst drubbing ever handed a Frank Leahy team. Notre Dame could skyrocket its present sixth-ranking with a victory.

Georgia Tech vs. 'Bama
 For the second straight week, football fans who like to watch from their living room instead of a stadium seat will see a top-notch contest. After watching Notre Dame and Oklahoma last week, the stay-at-homes will see Sugar Bowl-bound Georgia Tech against Alabama. 'Bama, the last team to defeat Georgia Tech, 22 games ago in 1950, has not been in a bowl game since 1948, but a victory over the nation's second-ranked team would give the team something to do next New Year's Day.

Two other games that have a direct bearing on the eventual bowl line-up are slated for the Southland. Maryland, No. 3 in the country, meets an undefeated but twice tied Mississippi team anxious to become the school's first bowl representative since 1936. Maryland, barred from the bowls by a Southern Conference edict, is a two-touchdown favorite. Tennessee, No. 7 in the AP poll, takes on Florida, which has never been in a New Year's Day game. Tennessee is talked of as a favorite for the Cotton Bowl and Florida would be a natural for the Orange Bowl. SC Must Win

Out on the Pacific Coast, Southern California must get by Washington to keep its record perfect for the big clash next week with

To Ask For Huge Raise Monday

NEW YORK—Pint-sized Bobby Shantz, fortified by the American League's Most Valuable Player Award for 1952, is going to demand a giant-sized increase in his pay check when he sits across the table from General Manager Art Ehlbers of the Philadelphia Athletics Monday.

The wee left-hander is expected to ask for $35,000, an increase of almost 200 per cent over what he received during the past season for winning 24 games while dropping only seven for the fourth place Athletics.

Shantz's 1952 salary was only $12,000 as he topped the American League pitchers in games won and finished high up in the earned-run average column.

Bobby sought to talk contract with Ehlbers last week but the A's bowl classics. ULA has an open date tomorrow.

The other entry likely will be determined tomorrow at Ann Arbor, Mich., where Purdue, No. 10 in the poll, invades Michigan in the Big 10's climax game. Purdue is 3-0 in the conference and Michigan 3-1. Wisconsin, also 3-1, is heavily favored over Indiana.

The Cotton Bowl host, an automatic reservation for the Southwest conference champion, will be Texas if the league leaders can get past old rival Texas Christian. But TCU has beaten Texas in upsets before and could do it again. Texas is No. 9 in the poll.

general manager told the little hurler:

"Let's not talk contract now. I've got to see X-rays of your broken wrist first. I don't want to sign a pitcher without an arm."

Shantz fractured a left wrist bone in the final week of the past season.

Heinrich Called For Induction

BREMERTON—The Bremerton draft board announced the call of Don Heinrich, the University of Washington football team's star quarterback and passer, for induction into the army Nov. 24. The call to military service apparently means the game against the University of Southern California Saturday may be the final college game for the all-American candidate. Heinrich was an all-America quarterback in 1950.

LOS ANGELES—Don Heinrich of the University of Washington and two players each from UCLA and Southern California rated all-America football nomination from the West Coast this week. Quarterback Heinrich rated the nod on his continued record as the nation's top collegiate passer and his field generalship. George Hack, the end who has caught seven of his touchdown passes, also came in for mention.

7:30 Practice Set For Frosh Team

Practice time for the Roseburg High School freshman basketball squad will be moved to 7:30 p.m. starting Monday. First week practices were scheduled from 5:30 to 7 p.m., but when the Junior Varsity is split from the Varsity Monday, additional afternoon practice time will be necessary for the Jayvees.

New Coach Bill Harper is still noncommittal about the possibilities of his freshman squad. "We've just been working on fundamentals, so it's too early to tell," Harper said. His squad will be pivoted around 1951 members of one of Roseburg Junior High's finest teams.
