

Court Penalizes Giant For Spree, Bad Conduct

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The penalty for a giant in police court yesterday was the same as for normal-sized men who get drunk and disorderly.

Max Palmer, 25, who towers 8 feet, 4 inches, paid the $15 fine after pleading guilty to the charge.

Palmer, advance agent for a Hollywood band, was arrested earlier in the day by a group of normal-sized cops.

The officers had to stoof of fold

NO QUORUM; HUNTING

The Canyonville City Council meeting originally slated for Monday night has been postponed until next Monday, according to Mrs. Laura Goodell, city recorder. Not enough members were in town for a quorum. "Everyone has gone elk hunting," she said.

Palmer into the paddy wagon. They also had to bend him a couple of feet to get him into and out of the cell in which he was locked up for several hours.

Dillard Women Show Cancer Film At Tri-City Meeting

By ROSA M. HEINBACH

Mrs. Paul Hult, local chairman of the American Cancer Society, and her mother, Mrs. O. D. McAllister, attended the American Legion Auxiliary meeting in Tri-City Friday evening at the Veterans' Memorial Building. Mrs. Hult showed the "Self-Examining of the Breast" picture in behalf of the Cancer Society.

Following the picture Dr. Mary Williams of Myrtle Creek spoke to the audience and conducted a question and answer period.

Visit From Oklahoma

Visiting from Oklahoma the past week at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Baldwin, were the two women's niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hawkins. Also with them were the women's nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dorsey from Lookaba, Okla. The party arrived last Friday to visit the Dillard relatives. They plan to go to Sheldon, Wash., to visit other relatives.

Mrs. Mary Stoner, mother of Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Baldwin, is improving and gaining her strength following her lingering illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Middlestadt have entertained relatives extensively the past week. Her mother, Mrs. E. W. Fisher of Eugene, arrived Friday and spent the weekend. Mr. Middlestadt's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Middlestadt, and his sister, Mrs. Bill Preston and daughter, Cheryl, of Lebanon, arrived Sunday evening. The party went to Medford Monday to attend a family funeral.

Tuesday, Mrs. Middlestadt's sister, Mrs. Don Romaine of Eugene, arrived and visited until Wednesday afternoon.

Convalescing in Hospital

Mrs. Harry Brown is convalescing in Mercy Hospital from a major operation she underwent Friday morning. She is reported to be recovering very satisfactorily.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean F. Collins over the weekend were his mother, Mrs. Mattie Collins, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Comings and daughter, Debby, of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gibson have purchased a new home in Cloverdale Park in Roseburg. They moved their family, Gloria, Jackie and Carl into their new home over the past weekend.

Mrs. Jean Godfrey and infant son, Michael Harry, born Nov. 5, at the Douglas Community Hospital in Roseburg, arrived home Saturday evening. Both are reported to be "doing just fine."

Guests From Salem

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morby of Salem were guests Saturday at the homes of his aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Willis, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bratsch. Morby returned from Alaska about a month ago where he was employed as an engineer.

C. C. Fosback, Dillard school clerk reports that the Dillard-Winston school census is nearing completion. The undertaking has been the work of the ladies of the Dillard Parent-Teachers Association.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Heinbach were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cooper, formerly of this community.

National Book Week Observed By Library

"Reading is Fun" is the motto the Roseburg Public Library and libraries throughout the United States are trying to put across now during National Book Week, Nov. 12-22.

City Librarian Muriel Mitchell and her staff have been preparing displays of brand new books for the local collection, which are now available for all to see on shelves and tables in the Public Library, located at 136 S. Rose St. Books for all ages are included in these displays.

Two special collections of books donated to Roseburg book lovers by the Kiwanis and friends of the late Mrs. Glen Wimberly are among those on display.

Crowds of children from local schools will throng through the library this week. Miss Mitchell said. Visits from school children to acquaint them with the library facilities are a regular feature of book week in Roseburg, she revealed.

Price Control Lifted From Cranberry Sauce

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cranberry sauce was exempted from price control Monday.

The Office of Price Stabilization said the action wasn't taken just because of the approaching holiday season when cranberries are a favorite with turkey.

OPS said the order was necessary to comply with the controls law. An amendment to this act required OPS to exempt fruits and vegetables in raw and processed form beginning last July 1.

HUNTING HANDICAP
ALICE, Tex. (AP)—Deer hunters reported many cars were getting stuck near here.

It wasn't muddy, and rain hadn't broken the drought. The cars, said the hunters, were stuck in cracks in the dry ground.

San Jose State commenced playing football in 1898. Since that time the Spartans have met different opponents.
