

Lutheran Church Will Show TV Film On Sunday

A special preview of two of the episodes of the TV program "This is the Life" will be shown at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Corey and Military Streets, on Sunday, Nov. 23. The first showing begins at 6:45 p.m. and the second at 8:15 p.m. Each showing will last an hour.

"This is the Life" was produced by the television department of the Lutheran Church, Missouri

Synod, and is now being televised on a large number of TV stations throughout the country. According to first reports it is being enthusiastically received wherever shown and seen.

Members of the Fisher family of Middleburg serve as the main characters of each episode of this program. Each episode, lasting one-half hour, deals with some specific problems of life and depicts how this imaginary family meets and solves the problem through the application of every-day living Christianity.

The Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, has spent approximately three-quarters of a million dollars to produce the first 25 episodes of "This is the Life." It plans to spend an additional half million during 1953 to continue and expand the series. Plans are also being made to show most of all the episodes to all congregations of the denomination, which are located in areas where the televised broadcast of "This is the Life" is not available.

In connection with both showings of Sunday evening the audience will be requested to give its reaction to the two episodes shown, by means of specially prepared evaluation sheets. Rev. R. Graef of Klamath Falls, representative of the denomination's public relations department, is showing the film and will also briefly speak at the close of each showing about the television project of the Lutheran Church. A free-will offering will be received to help defray the costs involved. The general public is invited to see this film.

Choral Society Rehearsals Set

By CORINNE WOODARD

Next week's rehearsal of the Roseburg Choral Society will be held on Sunday, Nov. 23, at 2:30 p.m., in the Junior High School, Frank Moore, president, reminded members this week. There will be no rehearsal on Monday night.

Further rehearsals are as follows: Monday, Dec. 1, 7:30 p.m.; Monday, Dec. 8, 7:30 p.m.; and dress rehearsal, Saturday night, Dec. 13, at 7:30.

The Roseburg Symphony Orchestra will rehearse with the Choral Society on Dec. 1, and both orchestra and choral groups will rehearse with the soloists on Dec. 13.

The "Messiah" will be presented in the Junior High Auditorium on the evening of Dec. 14, with the Choral Society, Symphony Orchestra, and church choirs joining with professional soloists in the presentation.

Soloists are: Exine Anderson, soprano, instructor of voice at the University of Oregon; Audrey Miretta, contralto, music student at the University; Calvin Long, tenor, formerly soloist with the Eugene Gleemen and major in mathematics at the University; and Douglas Stobie, bass-baritone, music student at the University.

Give Thanks

Where in all the world can we find a nation which has more reason to thank almighty God than these United States?

Richly blessed with mineral resources, with amber waves of ripening grain, with almost endless miles of fruited plains, and with an industrial potential which has made possible a standard of living unequalled anywhere else on earth, the United States has been the recipient of divine benedictions as no other nation in all of history.

Will the churches of America be crowded on this Thanksgiving Day? Will American citizens heed the call of their President to express their gratitude to God?

America's Christians will. In their churches they will repeat the ancient chant: "O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good; because His mercy endureth forever." Psalm 107:1.

If you have no church affiliation, we invite you to take part in our Thanksgiving service.
