VIRGINIA E. RIEBLING MARRIES JACK WRIGHT AT LOVELY CEREMONY

Virginia E. Reibling, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burton of Roseburg, became the bride of Jack Wright, also of Roseburg, Sunday, Nov. 9, at three o'clock in the afternoon at the Roseburg First Baptist Church. Rev. Kendall, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Canyonville, officiated at the lovely double-ring ceremony.

A group of more than 50 close friends and relatives were present at the candlelight service. The altar was beautifully decorated with large baskets of mixed chrysanthemums.

The bride was lovely in a traditional, full-trained wedding dress of white silk marquisette. The full skirt had appliqued lace daisies scattered over it. The long sleeves and bodice were of marquisette. The underskirt was of white tulle. The veil was of net and lace and was draped from a tiara of seed pearls.

The bride carried a nosegay of white mums centered with pink carnations and tied with long knotted ribbon streamers. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from her grandmother, Mrs. I. L. Thompson.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Al Steele, wore a pink silk taffeta floor-length gown and carried pink mums. Bridesmaid, Carla Lee Taylor, wore tulle taffeta and carried bronze mums.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Robert Burton. They advanced to the altar to the strains of Mendelssohn's processionals. The "Love Theme" from Romeo and Juliet was played as the recessional.

Preceding the ceremony many lovely organ solos were played by Mrs. Sam Warg. Gene Yates sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," "Thine Alone" and "I Love Thee." In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Edith Sullivan.

Ushers were Merl Short and James Barker. Best man was Leon Haas, uncle of the bride. The bride's mother wore a turquoise two-piece faille dress. She had black accessories and a corsage of pin-lavender spider mums.

The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a blue crepe dress and wore black accessories. She wore a pink spider mum corsage.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. I. L. Thompson, 330 Marster St. The house was decorated with huge bouquets of dahlias and fall flowers.

The table was covered with a white crocheted cloth made by the bridegroom's mother. A large, beautifully decorated, three-tiered wedding cake was centered in the table. The cake was topped with miniature wedding bells. Pink and yellow roses and lighted tapers were used about the room. The traditional first piece of wedding cake was cut by the bride and served to the bridegroom.

Mrs. Leon Haas, the bride's aunt, cut and served the wedding cake. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. I. L. Thompson, served coffee. Mrs. Carrie Adams, great-aunt of the bride, served the punch. They were assisted by Mrs. D. L. Taylor and Mrs. Edith Sullivan.

Miss Carla Lee Taylor and James Barker had charge of the music. Mrs. Leon Haas was in charge of the gifts.

For the wedding trip, Mrs. Wright chose a burgundy dress-maker suit with white accessories. She wore a corsage of white chrysanthemums. The young couple went to coastal points on their honeymoon.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Roseburg High School and are well known here. They are now at home at 1005 South Kane Street, Roseburg.
