MRS. CELIA DAY SPEAKS TO WOMEN OF MOOSE

Mrs. Irene Doty, library chairman, presented Mrs. Celia Day of the Toastmistress Club at the meeting of the Women of the Moose, Monday, Nov. 24. The book "The Silver Chalice" by Thomas Costain was delightfully reviewed by Mrs. Day and the published volume "A Gift of Words" by Douglas County poets was displayed and discussed.

Senior Regent, Hazel Jameson, directed the initiation ceremony of Marjorie Spring, Mabel Neal, Doris Siders, Helen Mentzer, Elsie Utterback and Beth Tucker. Irene Doty and Esther Bentley were sponsors of these candidates into the chapter.

It was announced that the midwinter conference to be held Jan. 18 will be in Roseburg. Moose Women from all Oregon chapters will congregate and plans are being made for this date.

Arrangements were announced for the formal dinner meeting Dec. 1. Mrs. Madeline Clark, grand regent of Dearborn, Mich., will be guest of honor. Cottage Grove, Powers and Coos Bay chapters have been invited. The annual holiday gift exchange will be a feature of the dinner hour. At 8 o'clock, the evening meeting will present a large class of candidates to be initiated in an impressive ritualistic ceremony in honor of Mrs. Clark. All visiting Moose women in this area are invited to attend.

At the close of the evening, a social hour was enjoyed with refreshments being served by Irene Doty, assisted by Virginia Finch. A beautiful crocheted basket filled with potted plants was awarded to Mabel Neal.

ART ASSOCIATION MEETS AT WARNER HOME RECENTLY

The Art Association met at the home of Mrs. Floyd Warner on Corey Avenue, Tuesday evening, Nov. 18, with Miss Amy Robinson as co-hostess.

In the business meeting, Mrs. Dave Taylor gave a report on national art week which was observed at the Roseburg Woman's Clubhouse with an exhibit of work from the University of Oregon and of local talent. Downtown stores also observed art week by showing works of local artists in their windows.

Entries in the state art scrapbook cover contest were presented to the group to choose first and second. The entry by Mrs. Victoria Ploss was selected. Miss Amy Robinson's entry was chosen for district scrapbook. Entries for the local scrapbook are to be ready Jan. 20. At this meeting the cover will be chosen from among the many entries. C. W. Hess volunteered to make a scrapbook cover of wood for the organization.

Future classes in ceramics and oils were discussed.

The following members were present: Mrs. Loraine Ashman, Miss Virginia Woodley, Mrs. Violet West, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Turner, Mrs. W. Frank Brown, Mrs. George Power, Mrs. Carola Waegman, Mrs. Helen Duncan, Miss Amy M. Robinson, Mrs. D. L. Taylor, Mrs. Floyd Warner, Mrs. Jack West and Mrs. Kenneth Ford.

Guests attending were Mrs. Doris Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Don Starr, Mrs. L. L. Taylor, C. W. Hess and Mrs. Mary H. Ingle.

The hostesses, Mrs. Warner and Miss Robinson, served refreshments to the group.

The place for the next meeting will be announced later.

Deputy Attorney General Named By Eisenhower

NEW YORK (AP) — William P. Rogers of Bethesda, Md., will be deputy attorney general in the next administration, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's press secretary announced Wednesday.

The selection was made, the secretary said, after a conference between Eisenhower and Herbert Brownell, whom the President-elect has designated as his attorney general.

Rogers was chief counsel of the Senate War Investigating Committee in 1947.

During the following two years he served as chief counsel for the Senate Permanent Investigating Committee.

Eisenhower's office said, referring to the two posts, "these commitments developed evidence of influence peddling, corruption, and disloyalty."
