MISS NORMA JOHNSON BECOMES BRIDE OF LEE HOLMES RECENTLY

Miss Norma Johnson only daughter of Mrs. Orval Fleenor, became the bride of Lee Holmes, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Holmes, at one of the most impressive double-ring ceremonies of the season. The young couple was married Nov. 15 at the First Presbyterian Church at eight o'clock in the evening. Dr. Morris Roach performed the candlelight ceremony before a large group of friends and relatives.

The bride was beautiful in a dress and train of white satin, which was accentuated with a Chantilly lace yoke and long sleeves. The veil was of white illusion and was trimmed with lace. The bride carried a white orchid with white satin streamers which rested on a white bible.

Arnold Nashlund led his sister to the altar. Mrs. Neil Kaser acted as matron of honor. She wore a dress and bolero of poppy red net over white taffeta. The bridesmaids, Miss Kay Holmes, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Dick Stark, wore dresses of red net over red taffeta. The style was identical to the dress of the matron of honor. The attendants carried nosegays of white American chrysanthemums and wore a white chrysanthemum at the throat of the jacket. Their head bands were of red net and chrysanthemums.

Candlelighters for the occasion were Mrs. Gene Parr and Mrs. Archie Rutter. They were dressed identically in white organdy. They wore wristlets of red carnations and head bands of red net and chrysanthemums.

Neil Kaser was best man. He was assisted by Donald Caskey and Art Pollard as ushers.

The sanctuary of the church was beautifully decorated with white American chrysanthemums which was accented by the candelabra.

Before the ceremony, Harold Mobley sang "Yours Is My Heart Alone" and "The Lord's Prayer." He was accompanied by Mrs. Hom-
