

Episcopal Guild Bazaar Plans Near Completion

Sat., Nov. 29, 1952.—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 7

ADMIRING THEIR HANDIWORK are the ladies on the plum pudding committee. Mrs. Rudy Ritzman, chairman of the committee, is holding one of the many plum puddings made for the Episcopal Bazaar to be held Dec. 5 and 6. The ladies above are also modeling aprons and using pot holders to be sold. Those appearing above are Mrs. R. B. Herschleb, Mrs. C. J. Ferrier, Mrs. Rudy Ritzman, Mrs. H. H. Turner, and Mrs. M. E. Ritter. (Picture by Fredrickson's Photo Lab.)

EPISCOPAL CHURCH GUILD COMPLETES PLANS FOR LARGE BAZAAR AND SALE

Mrs. William Lindsell, general chairman, announced recently that plans were being completed for the bazaar sponsored by the Women's Guild of St. George's Episcopal Church. The bazaar will be held Dec. 5 and 6 in the Parish Hall of the Church. The doors will be open each day from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Many articles of interest will be on display. Among those items is a water color painted by Mrs. Robert Davis of the Roseburg City Hall. This painting will be sold by sealed bids at the bazaar. The picture will be in Miller's window on display with other bazaar items during the first week of December.

The morning coffee and afternoon tea are two special features of the bazaar. The coffee is under the supervision of Mrs. Frank Woodworth. With the coffee will be served home-made coffee cake, sweet rolls and freshly baked donuts. The hours will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The tea is being sponsored by the Altar Guild, and is under the direction of Mrs. Jim Judd.

Mrs. Gaye Mowery is chairman of the apron committee. They have made many aprons of all designs. Featured will be the mother and daughter apron sets and aprons that are hand embroidered.

Potholders, tea towels and pillow cases have been made for the affair by the committee under the supervision of Mrs. Maude O'Bannon. These articles feature hand crocheted edges.

Mrs. W. W. Hobbs, Mrs. Franklyn Voyt and Mrs. John T. Pierce have artistically dressed dolls in varied costumes. The costumes were made by hand.

Mrs. R. B. Herschleb has been made chairman of the juice glass committee. This group has decorated the glasses and wrapped them with colored cellophane in sets of six. Some have been decorated especially for children.

Mrs. Albert Micelli has chairmanned the committee on holly and greens. Boxes of holly will be wrapped for mailing if desired. They have made guilDED cones and kissing balls. Mrs. Jack Wharthen made the frames and donated the materials for the balls. Plants will also be on display.

Cookies, candy and plum puddings will be featured during the event. Mrs. Dudley Walton and Mrs. Rudie Ritzman have headed the groups contributing these items. Homemade pies may also be purchased at the booth.

The Girls Friendly have made

MRS. WILLIAM LINDSELL, general chairman of the St. George's Episcopal Church bazaar, is shown above, admiring the Christmas stockings and kissing balls made for the occasion. On the mantle are candles, holly, cones and a crinoline tree that will also be featured Dec. 5 and 6 at the Parish Hall when the bazaar will be held. (Picture by Fredrickson's Photo Lab.)

big, fat, red, green and blue candles for the mantle. Some will be decorated. Shell earrings have been made for the occasion. Mrs. Norman Sierfarth was chairman of that committee. One of the special features of the bazaar is the crinoline trees that are ideal for dining room tables and mantles. Mrs. George Cummings was in charge of the group making beautiful hand-painted and baked creche figures. Amy M. Robinson has made pen and ink drawings for Christmas cards, and will conduct a booth at the bazaar. The Christmas stockings, of red and green felt or oilcloth, have been decorated by the committee headed by Mrs. Fred Bernau.

PREPARING FOR THE COFFEE HOURS are Mrs. Frank Woodworth and Mrs. A. S. Tyson. Morning coffee will be served from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Home-made coffee cake and sweet rolls will be served. Donuts will be fried and served hot to those wishing them. The public is invited to attend. (Picture by the Photo Lab.)

WINSTON-DILLARD HEU MAKES ALUMINUM TRAYS

The Winston-Dillard Home Extension Unit had an all-day meeting devoted to "Aluminum Trays" on Nov. 19. Leaders were Mrs. Fern Maness and Mrs. Jean Taber. Trays were partially completed and ready for drying at the noon-hour, at which time the group paused for sack lunches and coffee.

The business meeting was called to order at one o'clock by the chairman, Mrs. Jean Taber. An interesting fifteen-minute talk on "The Scandinavian County of Sweden" was given by Mrs. Connie Nelson, chairman of the World Citizenship committee. Other countries will be studied later, it was announced, in order to promote a better understanding of rural life in other parts of the world.

Those present included: Mrs. Mayme Manske, Mrs. Connie Nelson, Mrs. Lulu Post, Mrs. Eleanore Shigley, Mrs. Ann Weaver, Mrs. Beulah Pulley, Mrs. Vivian Burgess, Mrs. Debra Taylor, Mrs. Neva Conrad, Mrs. Vivian Borgeson, Mrs. Jean Taber, Mrs. Velma Albertus, Mrs. Jean Carls, Mrs. Dorothy True, Mrs. Mary Lee Walker, Mrs. Fern Maness and Mrs. Maud Powers.

The same group met with Mrs. Powers on the following day and completed work on the trays. The hostess served coffee and cake at the noon hour.

The next regular meeting will be held on Dec. 7 at the home of Mrs. Dora Mae Moore of Dillard. The all-day meeting will begin at ten o'clock with a sack lunch and coffee at the noon hour. Topic for discussion will be "Home Made Toys" in charge of Mrs. Vivian Burgess and Mrs. Betty Drew. Those attending are asked to bring the following articles: spoons, bottle caps, string, scissors, small nails, hammer, scraps of plywood, coping saw, tin cans (various sizes with smooth edges), and any home-made toys to be used as patterns (other than stuffed toys), a sack lunch and cup for coffee which will be served.

MELROSE PTA TO HOLD CHILI SUPPER SOON

The Melrose PTA will have a chili supper at the Melrose School, Dec. 5.

Serving will start at 6 p.m. Moving pictures will be shown.

ATTRACTING THE GIRLS' ATTENTION are the pretty dolls that were dressed by Mrs. W. W. Hobbs, Mrs. Franklyn Voyt and Mrs. John T. Pierce. The dolls are dressed some in hand-knitted ski suits, some in full taffeta dresses with big hats and some in hand-crocheted evening clothes. The dolls are among the many things to interest people of all ages at the Episcopal bazaar to be held in the near future. Girls shown above are Judy Barnhart, Alice Moyer, Patsy Riley and Mary Lindsell. (Picture by the Photo Lab.)

DILLARD WSCS MEETS FOR POTLUCK LUNCHEON

Mrs. Harold Emert was a charming hostess on Thursday when she entertained the Dillard Woman's Society of Christian Service at her home in Brockway. The hostess decorated her rooms in fall chrysanthemums. A delicious potluck luncheon was served at noon.

The business session was opened by the president, Mrs. Virgil Post. Mrs. Emert led the devotions. Mrs. Vivian Burgess read the treasurer's report. A benefit breakfast was planned for Friday to be given at the home of Mrs. Post, the proceeds of which were to go to the Methodist Old Folks Home in Salem.

The annual Christmas party for the Woman's Society was planned for Thursday evening, Dec. 4, at the home of Mrs. George McDowell in South Dillard. There will be a gift exchange, not the exceed 75 cents. Mrs. Margaret McCord was appointed to arrange a program for the party. The refreshments will be salad and sandwiches.

Members present were Mrs. Emert, Mrs. Virgil Post, Mrs. Ronald Burgess, Mrs. H. M. Burgess, Mrs. A. Goodwin, Mrs. Gene Lesher, Mrs. Clarence Walker, Mrs. Fred Albertus, Mrs. Rosa Heinbach and Rev. Frank B. Drew and Laurabeth.

ROSE SCHOOL PTA WILL MEET AT GYMNASIUM

The Rose School Parent-Teachers Association will meet at the Rose School gymnasium Monday, Dec. 1, at 7:30 p.m. There will be a round table discussion between the parents and teachers of the first three grades. Refreshments will be served after the meeting by Mrs. Larry Wiley and Mrs. Carl Duncan.

BETTY JEAN POST BECOMES BRIDE OF EDWARD E. DOERR AT INDIANAPOLIS RECENTLY

Betty Jean Post, older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin E. Post of Winston, became the bride of Edward E. Doerr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Doerr, of Indianapolis, Ind., on September 20. The single-ring ceremony was performed at 1:30 o'clock at The Church of The Little Flower, with only relatives and close friends attending. Father William Volmouth officiated.

The bride was lovely in a nylon afternoon dress of navy blue with white accessories. Her corsage was of yellow orchids.

Miss Patti Lee Michael of Indianapolis was maid-of-honor, and Wesley Murphy, also of that city, acted as best man to the bridegroom.

Following the impressive ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. The bride's table was covered with a full-length lace cloth and centered with an elaborate three-tiered wedding cake.

For going away, the bride completed her ensemble with a pale pink linen duster and matching gloves. Following their honeymoon, spent in Bloomington and Brown County State Park, Ind., the couple are now at home to their friends at 2449 North Pennsylvania street, in Indianapolis.

The bride is well known here, having attended the local schools. Before her marriage she was employed with the Indiana State Revenue of Gross Income Tax Division in Indianapolis. Her husband is employed as bookkeeper for the Allison Division of General Motors Corporation in Indianapolis while continuing study for his degree in Social Science at the University of Indiana.

Betty Jean Post Marries In Indianapolis, Ind.

BETTY JEAN POST of Winston recently became the bride of Edward E. Doerr of Indianapolis, Ind. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin E. Post. The above picture was taken during the wedding reception that followed the small but impressive ceremony. The reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

DEMONSTRATING THEIR CULINARY SKILLS, the male employees of Umpqua Valley Appliance cooked T-bone steaks, with all the trimmings, for the women employed at the appliance store. The party was held Nov. 11, Armistice Day. Ladies enjoying the meal were Edna Olesen, Mildred Hiber, Florence Hunnicutt, Ann West and Violet

Sconce. The chefs in the above picture are: Bud Brejcha, Claude Butler, Frank Perish, J. D. Reed, Stan Baldwin, Richard West, Robert West, Everett Perry, Jay Eaton, Orville Sconce, Robert Miller and Lee Bridges. (Picture by Jay Golden of the Photo Lab.)