OLALLA-TENMILE HEU ENJOYS TRAY PROJECT

The Olalla-Tenmile Home Extension Unit met at the Ladies Club House Tuesday. Maureen Muetzel and Hazel Ison demonstrated the making of aluminum trays, including a six inch tray, showing how to crimp the edge and the etching of the design on the tray.

There will be a special meeting at the club house Monday, Dec. 8 at 10:30 a.m. when Elaine Roberts and Adda Ollivant will demonstrate the making of nylon corsages. Anyone who wants to learn to make these corsages is invited to come. Bring a sack lunch and a cup. Coffee will be furnished.

The next regular meeting will be at the Ladies Club House Jan. 27 when Mrs. Betty Metzler will be in charge of the demonstration. The topic will be "Becoming a Good Buyer." There will be a potluck lunch at noon with Adda Ollivant and Maureen Muetzel as hostesses for the day.

Those present were: Vera Wilson, Julia Breitenbacher, Helen Northcraft, Adda Ollivant, Hazel Ison, Maureen Muetzel, Vinnie Cooper, Joyce Westcott, Helen McCree, Mickie Bourassa and Elaine Roberts.

Joyce Westcott received the award for the day.

CAMP FIRE AND BLUE BIRD LEADERS TO HAVE PARTY

The Annual Camp Fire and Blue Bird Leaders Assn. Christmas party will be held in the basement of the First Christian Church Tuesday, Dec. 2, at 1 p.m. It is a practice to bring gifts that have been made by girls or that can be made by them for the leaders to exchange. This gives the leader or guardian many new ideas to take back to her own group.

Election of officers will be held. Mrs. Wally Mull will demonstrate flower making and other novelties which can be used for Christmas giving. There will be a report on the candy sale.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the party. A baby sitter will be there to take care of the children.

All leaders and guardians are urged to be at this meeting.

RIVERSDALE GRANGE HOLDS INITIATION AT RECENT MEETING

The regular meeting of the Riversdale Grange was Friday, Nov. 21. Fourteen visitors and 72 members were present. One officer was absent because of illness.
