Minor Leagues Vote Bonus Rule

By JOE REICHLER
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—The minor leagues wind up their convention today after having adopted a new bonus law, passed the old high school rule, put in a waiver rule designed to hold on to their star players and voted down a proposal that would have revolutionized the entire structure of baseball.

At the same time, the National American Leagues, on the eve of their official opening today, held separate meetings on television and radio rights which ended unsatisfactorily with each league divided into two camps.

The minors unanimously voted to accept the bonus rule proposed by the Executive Council that was designed to curb payments of $25,000 to $100,000 to untried youngsters. It must, however, be ratified by the major leagues at their joint meeting next Sunday to become effective.

The rule designates as a "bonus player" and free agent who has received in excess of 4,000 from a Class A club and up, or $3,000 from a Class B club or one of lower classification. The majors are permitted to pay $5,000 in salary and bonuses. A major league bonus player must be kept two years. A minor league bonus player cannot be moved up for a year, at the end of which time he becomes subject to unrestricted draft.

A major league club violator can be fined $2,000. A minor league violation costs the club $1,000. The individual responsible could also be fined $500.

The high school rule permits scouts to talk to boys but forbids them to be signed until their class graduates.

In an effort to stop the practice of major league clubs raiding their farms by bringing up promising athletes in mid-season, the minors voted unanimously to prohibit the recall of players after July 31. A player sent out on option must stay with the minor league club for at least 10 days. Only in an extreme emergency, such as a player on the parent team getting hurt, can a big league club request and receive permission to recall a player.

The minors squelched a revolutionary proposal by Bill Veeck, president of the St. Louis Browns, that would have forbidden major league clubs from signing a player without previous experience, and would have made all minor league players eligible for draft after their first year in professional baseball.

The assembly not only voted he proposal down overwhelmingly but ruled that hereafter no proposal or amendment can be made from the floor, as Veeck's was done, without the sponsor giving at least 15 days notice to the association prior to the convention.

At the special gathering he received a wrist watch from the bowlers and a set of luggage from the alley proprietors. Brookes served the ABC since 1942.

Robinson's Title Is Taken Away

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York State Athletic Commission stripped Sugar Ray Robinson of his world middleweight title in a surprise move early Friday.

The action brought this rector from George Gainford, Robinson's manager, "somebody is screwing someplace. A title is won in a ring and taken away in a ring."

Robert Christenberry, commission chairman, declared Robinson's title was being vacated because he had not met the rule which requires a champion to defend his title every six months.

"We had given him an extra month to decide whether to continue his boxing or go into a career as an entertainer," said Christenberry. "Up to now we have not had an answer."

M and H Market moved into first place over First Methodist in the Commercial League bowling race by sweeping games and points from the Sutherland Sweet Shop at the Roseburg Alleys last night.

The Methodists faltered against Lockwood Motors and lost two games and three points to fall out of a pace spot. M and H scored the high team game of the night with a 1,018, but took second to Self Service Laundry in team series. The Laundrymen topped 2,814 pins.

Individually, it was Tony DeGroot and Leonard Tyler. DeGroot scored a lustrous 235 game for Schwartz Clothing, and Tyler had a hefty 694 series for Todd Building Construction.

Notre Dame Player Believes Shift Is OK

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—The controversial Notre Dame shift cannot be called as a surprise play against anybody, says Don Penza, captain-elect of the 1953 Irish.

The so-called sucker shift that lured opponents into offside penalties and produced important touchdowns in upset victories over Oklahoma and Southern California was not mentioned during Notre Dame's annual banquet Thursday night.

However, Penza, an end from Kenosha, Wis., told reporters that the shift was expected by every foe the Irish faced this season.

"We could hear our opponents keep shouting 'watch out for that shift' in every game we played," said Penza. "It was hardly a surprise play against anybody. And besides, Purdue, Pittsburgh, Iowa and Michigan State used the same shift against us."

Huskies Feel Out Evashevski

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP)—University of Washington officials put out a feeler to Iowa Football Coach Forest Evashevski last week but Evashevski wasn't interested, the Lewiston Tribune reported Thursday night.

Tribune Sports Editor Charlie Boren said the "feeler" to the former Washington State grid boss shevski was also a Spokane visitor that weekend.

Boren quoted an "informed source" as saying Evashevski did go so far as to lay down a few conditions which would have to be met before he would consider it, but University officials declined to meet them.

There have been rumors in recent months that Howie Odell, Washington mentor, was planning to quit coaching at the end of this season to enter private business. But he has been emphatic in his denials and reasserted last week end he was staying at Washington "and not just to finish out a contract, either."

Odell has a year remaining on a three year contract.

Indian Basketball Team Will Go To North Bend

The improving Roseburg Indian basketball squad journeys to North Bend Saturday night for another cross-county tilt. It's the first game on the road for the locals.

They hope to start a string with the Bulldog match. Thursday night, the Indians won their season's opener against Cottage Grove.

Saturday's game sends two teams against each other from the same District 5, but the Bulldogs and Indians are in opposite sub-districts.
