

Sports

Brethauer Gets Webfoots' Award

EUGENE — Monte Brethauer, who during the past three years has caught 101 passes to set a new school record, Friday was selected the outstanding senior on the University of Oregon football team.

The selection, made by his teammates, gave him the Hoffman award presented annually by Vern Hoffman, former Ducks athlete, at the school's football banquet honoring senior players.

Among those leaving are Ron Lyman, Wayne Johnson and Mel Streeter, ends; Hal Simmons, Dick Stout and Len Diederich, tackles; Emmett Williams, Bob Wilcox and Del Celmins, guards; John Adams, center; Hal Dunham, quarterback; Don Sloan, Bob Leter and Fred Mueller, halfbacks, and Tom Novikoff, fullback.

Brethauer, who played defensive end, made 41 catches this year. That ranked him second in pass reception in the Pacific Coast Conference and among the top 10 in the U. S.

Ted Ogdahl To Speak At Local Grid Banquet

Coach Ted Ogdahl of Willamette's spectacular Bearcat football team is listed as the guest speaker at the annual Lions Club football banquet for the Roseburg High grid squad.

All-Northwest Conference Defensive Back Mickey Coen, a former Roseburg star, is expected to accompany the young Bearcat mentor to the banquet Wednesday, Dec. 10, at Riversdale Grange Hall.

The Lions Club will toast the Indian varsity players and their coaches at this annual affair starting at 6:30 Wednesday night. Bud Parsons has been selected as master of ceremonies at the function.

Ballantyne Stages Hoop Clinic Today At HS Gym

Coach Dick Ballantyne staged a basketball clinic this morning at the High School gym with hopes of coordinating the hoop teaching practices within the Roseburg school system.

Present at the clinic were other high school coaches, junior high and grade school coaches. The purpose of the caucus was not to set down any hard fast pattern of instruction, but to coordinate the activities among the coaches by discussion.

Immediately following this session, Grade School Coaches Walt Buss of Fuleron, Bob Ransom of Benson, Galan Yeske of Rose, Jim Hennebeck of Riverside and Dick Grecian of Wilbur moved into a separate session to work out a winter schedule. This will be the first year of action in the loop for Wilbur. Melrose is only excluded because it does not have a gym.

Commission Sets Dates For State Racing Meets

PORTLAND — The State Racing Commission Friday set the dates for four horse racing meets in Oregon next year.

Longest of the four is the eight-day meet, Sept. 5 through 12, at the State Fair at Salem. The other meets: Tillamook County Fair, Aug. 13-15; Sage and Saddle Club, Ontario, June 11-13; Northwest Quarterhorse Association, Pendleton, May 21-23.

Dates of Portland's dog and horse racing meets are to be set at the commission's Jan. 9 meeting.

OSC Rooks Defeat Clark Junior College, 66-57

CORVALLIS — With Wade "Swells" Halbrook, 7 foot 1 inch center, pumping in 27 points, the Oregon State College Rooks came from behind in the second half Friday night to defeat Clark Junior College, 66-57, in an intercollegiate basketball game. Clark led at intermission, 36-33. Halbrook, a scoring honors, Kenny Davis was high for the Vancouver, Wash., prep star at Portland, easily won Jaycees with 12.

Reedsport Loses, 34-36, To Toledo In Jamboree

Reedsport High School hoopers lost a 34-36 half game to Toledo in a jamboree at Reedsport Friday night. Score at the quarter was Reedsport, 25, Toledo, 18.

Jerry Rose was high scorer for Reedsport with 15 points. Don Walker took high honors for Toledo with 13.

Four Reedsport and two Toledo men fouled out during the half of play.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS Chickowemay group Thursday afternoon planted a permanent Christmas tree at the North Jackson St. triangle. The tree was brought in by the Forest Service from the Diamond Lake area. Pictured, kneeling, are Geraldine Flink, Sharon Langton and Constance Meyer; standing, Mrs. Robert Cartwright, guardian, and Mrs. Emil Flink, assistant guardian.

Flight Engineers End Strike; To Mediate

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Striking flight engineers returned to work at Eastern Airlines today and both sides agreed to mediation of a wage dispute.

EAL announced that normal service was resumed immediately with the company's big Constellation, grounded when the strike began Monday. The first flight left Miami at midnight.

Jack Robertson, president of the Flight Engineers International Association, AFL, and S. L. Shannon, vice president in charge of EAL operations, agreed to a request from Leverett Edwards, member of the National Mediation Board, to mediate under provisions of the Railway Labor Act.

Pre-Convention Boosters Of Ike Spent Huge Sum

WASHINGTON (AP) — Disclosure that Eisenhower boosters spent at least $1,200,000 in pre-convention activities without reporting it brought a suggestion from a congressional committee Thursday that election reporting laws be broadened.

The expenditure, made by the Citizens for Eisenhower Committee, did not have to be reported under present law, which requires political committees to report only receipts and expenditures in a general election.

The spending to help win the Republican presidential nomination for Eisenhower was disclosed Wednesday by Walter Williams, chairman of the Citizens for Eisenhower committee studying possible election law revisions.

Chairman Boggs (D-La.) told newsmen it indicated the need for some system of determining how much is collected and spent in an entire campaign, from the time a candidacy is boosted until the time some system of determining how much is collected and spent in an entire campaign, from the time a candidacy is boosted until the time the election takes place.

Other committee members expressed similar sentiments but agreed that the main difficulty facing Congress is the question of whether control of primary elections and pre-convention activities is a field in which Congress has jurisdiction. Heretofore, Congress has proceeded on the theory that the states alone hold jurisdiction over primaries and other non-general election activities.

Williams said he does not know how much other Eisenhower partisans may have spent in the general's successful drive for the GOP nomination. His own committee, he said, collected about $1,600,000 for general election work and spent $1,450,000 of it.

Appeal For Two Parrots, Possible Carriers, Made

LONDON (AP) — The British Broadcasting Company broadcast an appeal last night to aid London medical authorities in a hunt for two gaily-colored parrots possibly dangerous to humans.

The feathered pets are believed carriers of parrot fever (psittacosis) — a rare disease that killed 100 Britons in a 1930 epidemic.

The two parrots, went on the wanted list after the manager of the pet shop that handled and sold them died of suspected psittacosis.

The birds were recently imported from Australia and sold to an unknown customer who undoubtedly does not know that they may be infected.

LOCAL NEWS

Grange To Meet — Regular meeting of South Deer Creek Grange will be at 8:15 tonight. A potluck dinner will be held preceding the business session.

D.U.V. No. 15 To Meet — The D.U.V. Florence Nightingale Tent, No. 15, will meet at the K. P. Hall, Friday evening, Dec. 12, at 7:30 p.m. All members are urged to be present.

Leaving For Corvallis — Miss Celeste Sory, Miss Jan Sinclair and Miss Sue Crossash of Roseburg are leaving for Corvallis today to visit Mr. and Mrs. Hempenis. They plan to attend a house dance at Oregon State College.

Visit At Dent Home — Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dent and children, Barry and Nita, have returned to their home in Astoria, following a three-day stay in Roseburg visiting Mr. Dent's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dent, and other relatives and friends.

Dancing Club To Meet — Riverside Folk Dancing Club will meet at Riverside Grange Hall tonight for a potluck turkey dinner at 7:00 o'clock. Members are to bring either a salad and dessert or a covered dish and their table service.

D. U. V. To Meet — The D. U. V. party for those having birthdays in October, November and December, will be given at the home of Effie Olsen, 420 West Douglas Street, Monday Dec. 8, at 8:00 p.m. There will be a potluck luncheon.

Daughter Is Born — A daughter, Meredith Jean, was born Nov. 18 at Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene to Mr. and Mrs. Si Rodakowski of that city. The latter was Madlyn Stearns of this city prior to her marriage. She is a daughter of Mrs. Harry C. Stearns of Oakland.

Visit At Hinsdale Home — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baum, nee Phillips Hinsdale, and two children, Bonny Jill and Susan, of Corvallis, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hinsdale, 827 Honick Street, Roseburg. Mr. Baum is here on business. They will leave for Corvallis Sunday.

To Meet — The Disabled American Veterans and Auxiliary District No. 5, will meet in Roseburg, Sunday, Dec. 7, at 10:00 a.m. in the Labor Temple, at Cobb and Roberts Streets. Potluck punch after the meeting. Those attending are asked to bring a covered dish and their own table service. All those eligible to membership are cordially invited.

Attend Banquet Meeting — State Senator-elect Paul Geddes, Representative V. T. Jackson, Representative-elect John P. and Mrs. Amacher and Charles V. Stanton, editor of The News-Review spent Thursday night in Salem attending a banquet given by the Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association for members of the legislature. Stanton, as president of the ONPA, presided over the program at which talks were made by Frank Jenkins, president of Southern Oregon Publishing Company and publisher of the Klamath Falls Herald and News; Senator Gene Marsh, who is to be President of the Senate and Representative Rude Wilhelm, who is to serve as Speaker of the House.

OMAHA WOODMEN LIFE INSURANCE SOCIETY
Protection Plus
A. W. McGUIRE, Dist. Mgr.
"Fraternity in Action"
C. V. Rt. Box 845, Roseburg
Phone 9-8442

Junior Chamber To Elect Monday

The Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce will elect officers at its next dinner meeting, Monday, Dec. 8, it was reported Friday.

Candidates so far are Ernie Barker for president, Chuck Wright and Dr. Verne Anderson for vice-president number one, Bill Miles and George Shepard for vice-president number two, Frank Stringer, Art Pollard and Harold Chitwood for secretary, Bill Wilson and Larry Mitchell for treasurer, and Charles Woodrich, Grady Mankins, Clyde Moore, Jack Loomis, Bill Gray, Bob Horn, Don Caskey, Walt Ackley and Joe Boatwright for members of the board of directors. Other nominations may be made from the floor.

The Scotchline program for traffic safety is continuing today, weather permitting, until 4 p.m. High. The program has proven on Rose Street near the Junior successful and will be continued until public demand is satisfied. Each Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. is the scheduled time.

Five new JC members were welcomed at the first meeting. They are Dow Keasey, Robert Blackwell, Walter Kauzlarich, Howard Thomas and Donald Clark.

Plans for Santa's coming are being handled by Bill Wilson, and the Christmas tree lighting committee is headed by Bill Miles.

Heavy Seas Lash Ship Bringing Eisenhower

(Continued from Page One)

cal storm of near-typhoon intensity raged. Rough seas and some seasickness were in prospect.

The big cruiser, however, was expected to ride through the storm without difficulty.

Eisenhower made it clear, in a news conference on Friday before leaving Korea, that the task confronting the United Nations in the Korean threat to world peace is enormous. He said:

"How difficult it seems to be in a war of this kind, to work out a plan that would bring a positive and definite victory without possibly running grave risk of enlarging the war."

But Eisenhower is confident of ultimate victory. "I am far from a defeatist," he recalled.

Eisenhower flew the 2,179 miles from Korea to Guam. His plane set down early Saturday morning at the Navy's Agana Air Station.

The protest resignations of the seven industry members of the Chicago WSB said President Truman's coal wage decision "irrevocably ruined any hope for effective control of inflation" by direct wage ceilings.

Truman overruled the WSB two days ago and authorized a $1.90-a-day wage increase for John L. Lewis' coal miners. The WSB had said $1.50 a day was all the pay boost they could get without endangering anti-inflation controls.

Refusal to grant the full amount, Truman said, would precipitate a nation-wide coal strike and confront President-elect Eisenhower with a "national emergency" when he takes office Jan. 20.

The seven industry members of the national board were hardly considered likely to walk out in a body today, although no informed official would make a flat prediction.

It was thought probably, however, that one or more industry members might quit on their own. It was reported that James Delmar, industry member from Houston, was considering doing this.

30 MILE WIND RECORDED

Thirty-mile-an-hour gusts of wind Friday night took down Copco lines serving the Umpqua district and lower Winston area.

The winds, the strongest recorded in Roseburg so far during 1952, knocked down five poles in Umpqua and three in Winston late Friday night. Service was expected to be restored by noon today. Copco officials said only three houses in the Winston area were affected.

TRUCK ROLLS OVER

An O and C truck and trailer driven by William Lee Boyd, Medford, rolled onto its side on Highway 99 at Dillard early today when its lights failed and the driver pulled over into the ditch, state police said. No one was injured.

CASE DISMISSED

A charge of drawing a bank check with insufficient funds against H. C. Thomas has been dismissed in district court on recommendation of the district attorney's office.

Back From Portland — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hatfield are back at their home in Roseburg, following a trip to Portland to visit at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Attorney and Mrs. William W. Knight, and family.

Virginia Bouse Relates Experiences Of Tragedy

(Continued From Page One)

neighbor, but I was so scared I couldn't talk. Finally my boss where I was working talked to Mr. Hebard and asked him to investigate.

I think I knew what had happened even before the officer told me, but I couldn't admit it to myself. I kept hoping it was nothing at all.

Mother and Father had had many quarrels in the past. Once in a while we had some happy times. Sometimes we'd just sit around the house and do lots of things — play cards, pop pop corn, make candy. That was Daddy's special side. But that didn't happen too often.

My parents argued a lot about his drinking, gambling, and other things.

Talk Over Problems

Mother and I were awfully close. She was lots of fun. We went to movies a lot together, but I had more fun just sitting at home and talking to her. Often she would consult me, and I would consult her a lot. If I had a problem she'd talk it over with me and help me solve it.

About a month and a half before she died, we went to Portland together. We checked in at a hotel, rested a while, and later went to a movie.

When we got out of the theater, I still hadn't had my fill of movies that day. So I talked her into going to an all-night theater. When we got out it was 3 a.m. and Mother kept saying "what will people think," about us girls walking down the streets of Portland at three in the morning.

The next day we went shopping. Of course Mother said I couldn't have anything. But there was a nice formal in a window and sweaters, and — well, we went home by bus and I had a brand new formal and a sweater.

I think Mother's main interest was in us — my brother Tommy my little sister, Jane, and myself. Often she used to watch through the KNRR radio studio window when I took part in a disk jockey program put on by Bob Grant.

Conversation Strained

I talked to Dad a couple of times up at the jail after it happened. He didn't say a great deal and our conversation was awfully strained. I talked to him at the request of some of his relatives from back East.

I asked him why he did it. He said he didn't know and that he was sorry.

He seemed more quiet than usual, but otherwise was the same as he had ever been. He seemed to feel sorry for himself.

The second time I talked to him he said about the same thing he had said the first time. That was the last I saw of him until the trial. I didn't talk to him during the trial.

Now that this is all over, I'm going to finish school here and when I am graduated next spring I'll go home for about a month and a half.

After that — well, it's a deep secret. All I can say is that I'll be wearing a ring pretty soon.

Klamath Falls Dentist Is Convicted By Jury

PORTLAND (AP) — Dr. Miller Cooper of Klamath Falls, accused of evading $5,300 in income taxes, was convicted here Friday.

The defense said Cooper, a dentist, had not attempted to evade the taxes for 1945 to 1947 as charged — he had only made book-keeping errors.

I. B. Nichols Succumbs Friday

I. B. Nichols, 82, life-long resident of this community, died last night at his home in Brockway.

He was born Jan. 7, 1870, in Riddle to I. B. and Isabelle Riddle Nichols, pioneer settlers of this community. He was the last of 12 children in this family to die.

Nichols was a retired merchant and postmaster of Brockway. He served in the latter position for 41 years. He was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church and of the BPO Elks No. 326, Roseburg.

He was married at Brockway in 1893 to Ada Frances Davin, who preceded him in death in 1946.

Surviving are two sons, Harold and Cyril Nichols, both of Brockway; six grandchildren, Mrs. Joe (Beverly) Mercher, Morrilton, N. J., Mrs. William (Patricia) Shapero, Brockway, Mrs. L. O. y d (Nancy) Gallop, Roseburg, Davila Nichols, Brockway, Richard Nichols, Brockway, and Raymond Nichols, Portland; four great-grandchildren, Sydney, Patrick and Scott Alan Shapero, all of Brockway, and Jeffrey Alan Gallop, Roseburg.

Recitation of the Rosary will be held in The Chapel of The Roses, Roseburg Funeral Home, Sunday at 8 p.m. Requiem mass will be in the St. Joseph Catholic Church Wednesday at 10 a.m. with Father Edmund Hyland officiating. Interment will follow in the James Davlin Cemetery in Brockway.

When we got out of the theater, I still hadn't had my fill of movies that day. So I talked her into going to an all-night theater. When we got out it was 3 a.m. and Mother kept saying "what will people think," about us girls walking down the streets of Portland at three in the morning.

The next day we went shopping. Of course Mother said I couldn't have anything. But there was a nice formal in a window and sweaters, and — well, we went home by bus and I had a brand new formal and a sweater.

I think Mother's main interest was in us — my brother Tommy my little sister, Jane, and myself. Often she used to watch through the KNRR radio studio window when I took part in a disk jockey program put on by Bob Grant.

I talked to Dad a couple of times up at the jail after it happened. He didn't say a great deal and our conversation was awfully strained. I talked to him at the request of some of his relatives from back East.

I asked him why he did it. He said he didn't know and that he was sorry.

He seemed more quiet than usual, but otherwise was the same as he had ever been. He seemed to feel sorry for himself.

The second time I talked to him he said about the same thing he had said the first time. That was the last I saw of him until the trial. I didn't talk to him during the trial.

Now that this is all over, I'm going to finish school here and when I am graduated next spring I'll go home for about a month and a half.

After that — well, it's a deep secret. All I can say is that I'll be wearing a ring pretty soon.

PORTLAND (AP) — Dr. Miller Cooper of Klamath Falls, accused of evading $5,300 in income taxes, was convicted here Friday.

The defense said Cooper, a dentist, had not attempted to evade the taxes for 1945 to 1947 as charged — he had only made book-keeping errors.

Camp View Cafe & Tavern
(Formerly Bill's Tavern)
Under New Ownership
Come Out and Let George Do It
(George Jameson)
Complete Sandwich Menu
Good Hamburgers
1945 North Stephens

YOUR BODY
ROSEBURG, OREGON — These health articles are written and paid for by Dr. B. A. SMITH Chiropractic Physician, 1500 Garden Valley Road, in the interest of public health and to help you understand the body function. Look for these informative articles every Saturday.

Throughout man's history the physical facts of birth, growth, maturity, old age, and death have been recognized and accepted. We may visualize this cycle as a curve with an initial upward curve representing the period of growth and a later downward slant representing the period of decline, with the period of maturity at the rounded peak of the curve. When we look at the whole of life in this way, aging becomes as much a part of existence as growth.

There is a point beyond which human life does not extend even under the most favorable circumstances. At present this limit has tentatively been set at the century mark. It is a conspicuously familiar fact that very few individuals have lived or claim to have lived for more than one hundred years. It is common knowledge also that the human lifespan is very rarely completed and that the thousands of individuals who now come within one, two, or three decades of the century mark are not necessarily healthy, happy and useful. So, for all practical purposes, the problems of aging resolve themselves into what changeable influences operate to cut short the journey of life before its biological age limit is reached.

Although man, by virtue of his physical organization, is capable of living to be one hundred years old, individual human beings vary greatly in their potentialities for long life. Upon the original quality of the fertilized egg from which each human being develops, depends in large part the ability to resist the hazards of the usual wear and tear of life.

However, heredity operates only within the framework of environment. Individual differences in

Camp View Cafe & Tavern
(Formerly Bill's Tavern)
Under New Ownership
Come Out and Let George Do It
(George Jameson)
Complete Sandwich Menu
Good Hamburgers
1945 North Stephens

Need a GIFT IDEA

THE NEWS-REVIEW

Why not a GIFT SUBSCRIPTION To The News-Review For A New Subscriber or Extend An Old Subscription For Rates, Phone 2-2631

FOR RENT
• Cutting Torches
• Welders
• Sand Blasters
CALL US -- WE HAVE WHAT YOU NEED
LANSING-OLIVER TOOL RENTALS
Open Sunday 9 to 6
847 S. Steph. Ph. 3-6002

Join Our Roller Skating CLUB ...
... GET IN OUR ROLLER SKATING CLASSES
EVERY SUNDAY EVENING
6:30 to 7:30 p. m.
FREE SKATING LESSONS TO ALL CLUB MEMBERS
Rolletta Skating Rink
340 East 2nd. Ave. N.

YOUR BODY
ROSEBURG, OREGON — These health articles are written and paid for by Dr. B. A. SMITH Chiropractic Physician, 1500 Garden Valley Road, in the interest of public health and to help you understand the body function. Look for these informative articles every Saturday.

Throughout man's history the physical facts of birth, growth, maturity, old age, and death have been recognized and accepted. We may visualize this cycle as a curve with an initial upward curve representing the period of growth and a later downward slant representing the period of decline, with the period of maturity at the rounded peak of the curve. When we look at the whole of life in this way, aging becomes as much a part of existence as growth.

There is a point beyond which human life does not extend even under the most favorable circumstances. At present this limit has tentatively been set at the century mark. It is a conspicuously familiar fact that very few individuals have lived or claim to have lived for more than one hundred years. It is common knowledge also that the human lifespan is very rarely completed and that the thousands of individuals who now come within one, two, or three decades of the century mark are not necessarily healthy, happy and useful. So, for all practical purposes, the problems of aging resolve themselves into what changeable influences operate to cut short the journey of life before its biological age limit is reached.

Although man, by virtue of his physical organization, is capable of living to be one hundred years old, individual human beings vary greatly in their potentialities for long life. Upon the original quality of the fertilized egg from which each human being develops, depends in large part the ability to resist the hazards of the usual wear and tear of life.

However, heredity operates only within the framework of environment. Individual differences in