Jeanette Bates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Bates of Roseburg, became the bride of Richard Dale Nelson of Roseburg, son of Mr. Richard Nelson of Gresham, Nov. 28. The impressive double ring ceremony took place at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Gresham with Dr. Lund officiating.

The bride given in marriage by her father was lovely in a white lace over satin gown with the traditional long train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a cap of satin and seed pearls. The bride's bouquet was a cascade of talisman roses.

Maryalice Meeker of The Dalles, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a blue satin dress with net overskirt of coral and blue. The bridesmaids, Jack Peterson, Ruth Anderregg, Sharlene Waters and Sharlene Lipold, all of Gresham, wore dresses fashioned identical to the matron of honor's.

Evelyn Bates of The Dalles, niece of the bride, was flower girl and wore a gown of yellow satin with net overskirt. Bill Pierson of Vancouver, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Jack Quay of Gresham was best man. Ushers were Don Jessup, Gene Harmon, George Lipold and Ronald Hasselman, all of Gresham. Eugene Nelson of Grants Pass sang "Through the Years" and "Because" before the ceremony and sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the close. The traditional processional and recessional marches were used for the ceremony.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered by the huge, three-tiered wedding cake.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Nelson went to Bright Wood (near Mt. Hood) for their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson are now at home to their friends at 2014 S. E. 83rd St. in Portland.
