MISS BESSIE HACHENBERG UNITED IN MARRIAGE TO JOSEPH RAY IN GRANTS PASS
 Miss Bessie Mae Hachenberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hachenberg of Grants Pass, became the bride of Joseph Edward Ray, son of Iva Ray of Grants Pass, Nov. 29, at the First Christian Church in Grants Pass. Rev. William C. Piper read the impressive double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of ivory satin in classic design with a full train. Her illusion veil featured a ruching of the same material and she carried an orchid surrounded by lily-of-the-valley and carnations atop a white Bible.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Louise Hachenberg as maid-of-honor, in a gown of lavender satin and marquette. She carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Ray, sister of the bridegroom, who wore Nile green tarrata; Miss Allene Ray of Medford and Miss Ramona McGuire wore gowns of yellow taffeta. The bridesmaids carried chrysanthemums in matching hues.

Candles were lighted by Roberta and Mickey Ray, sisters of the bridegroom, in gowns of yellow taffeta with head-dresses of yellow chrysanthemums.

Karen Hutchesin, in green organdy, and Ann Spurling, in yellow organdy, were train bearers.

James L. Spurling, U.S. Navy, of New Plymouth, Idaho, was best man. Ushers were Joe and Richard Hachenberg, brothers of the bride, and Lorne Ray, brother of the bridegroom.

The couple plan to make their home in Idaho after the bride completes her senior year at Southern Oregon College of Education.

Mrs. Ray formerly taught in the Canyonville elementary school and Grants Pass school system.
