Girls of the Oki ci ya pi Camp Fire Group have been busy during the past few weeks preparing to "Send Santa Overseas."

The National Camp Fire Organization, cooperating with several groups, has worked out religious projects to local "Santa Overseas." The local Oki ci ya pi group has taken part in a project called "Operation Embroidery Kits" by sending thread, needles, hoops and scissors to a group of orphaned children in Israel who help with their own maintenance by making and selling beautiful embroidered articles.

Another way they have helped people to help themselves is by taking part in the "Bags for Korea" program. The National Catholic Welfare Council supports a clinic for ailed about 2500 people a day. All their cash is put out in food laving nothing with which to purchase even the bags to carry the food. These Camp Fire girls gave two-way service by making six bags, 12 by 14 inches, with a drawstring top and only one seam; the bag can then be opened up and used as the sleeve of a garment or an article of baby clothing.

Grand Regent Honored At Dinner Meeting Here

The official visit of Grand Regent Madeline Clark of Dearborn, Mich., was the occasion of a formal dinner meeting Monday evening at the Moose Hall. Upon her arrival in Roseburg Mrs. Clark was welcomed by Hazel Jameson and Irene Routledge of the local chapter and photographed by Paul Jenkins of the News-Review. She was escorted to radio station KRNK and interviewed by Lyle Fenner in a panel discussion of the Women of the Moose Chapter work on a national scope. Roseburg has been continuously one of the top honor chapters of the state since its institution May 21, 1950, thus selected by Mooseheart as one of the two official visits to be made in Oregon by the Grand Regent.

A six o'clock turkey dinner was served buffet style to more than eighty members and out-of-town guests. The holiday motif was carried throughout the decorations and damask linens graced the tables arranged by Ethel Decker and Helen Fenwick of the Home-making committee and Rose Schmieden, Moosehaven chairman, who were hostesses for the evening. Hazel Jameson, Roseburg senior regent, opened the eight o'clock meeting with all officers at their respective stations. Agnes Heinke, Eugene, member of the College of Regents, was introduced to a large assemblage and in turn presented Grand Regent Madeline Clark. Mrs. Clark's gracious manner and message was inspirational to all. Highlight of the evening was the formal initiation of a large class of candidates. Exemplification of the ritual regent was directed by senior regent Hazel Jameson, assisted by executive officers, Betty Collison, Italia Harrison, Betty Johnson, Cleda Lehrbach, Doris Myers, Faye Osteen, Beulah Shears, Betty Paek, Della Beate, Dorothy Busch, Joyce Croucher, Dolores J. Gibson, Viola Foote and Iolice J. Gibson were sponsored by co-workers Hazel Jameson, Irene Routledge, Marjorie Rinehart, Winnifred Steele, Rose Schmieden and Verona Mason. Grand Regent Madeline Clark presented the new co-workers with the Year Book and welcomed them to the more than 215,000 Women of the Moose.

Functional instructions and suggestions were given and the story of Mooseheart and Moosehaven was told with sincere enthusiasm. The chapter development program incorporates committee activities into the community service affairs and all were obligated to use their talents. Lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Clark from the Roseburg and Eugene chapters. Junior Graduate Regent Irene Routledge presented Hazel Jameson with a holiday gift from her co-workers. Following the impressive closing ceremony an exchange of Christmas gifts offered much merriment and a social hour was enjoyed. Ethel Decker was awarded the prize of the evening. Guests from Eugene No. 13 included Alma Goldard, Agnes Heinke and Pearl Forncross. Doris McWilliams, Tillamook No. 571, was a visitor. It was announced the annual Christmas program and party for the children will be given by the L.O.O.M. Sunday afternoon, Dec. 21, at the Moose Hall with Bob Rains and Ham and Sue Hamilton in charge of the program. The next meeting will be held Jan. 12 at the Moose Hall on South Stephens Street.
