Dillard Pastor Goes To Tangent

By ROSA HEINBACH

Rev. and Mrs. Frank B. Drew and children, Judith Kay and Laurabeth, left their home in Dillard Tuesday afternoon for their new home in Tangent, Ore., where the Rev. Mr. Drew will fill the pulpit at the Tangent Methodist Church.

The Drews came to Dillard in July, 1950, from Pueblo, Colo. He has been very active among the youth group in the Dillard-Winslow community, assisting with basketball in both the high school and junior high groups, as well as with the roller skating parties. Mrs. Drew often substituted on the Dillard school teaching staff.

Skywatchers Needed

Mrs. G. Philip Smith, who is supervisor of the local Sky Watch observation post, reports she is having difficulties manning the post for a complete daylight schedule. Those in charge are hoping to eventually have a full 24-hour schedule. Anyone interested in helping with this project is asked to contact Mrs. Smith in Dillard or Mrs. Carl Borgas in Winston.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hathaway and Mrs. Virgil Bateman returned Monday from an extensive trip to Nebraska. The Hathaways spent Thanksgiving day at Norfolk, Neb. and stayed for 10 days visiting relatives and old friends.

They returned by way of Salt Lake City and Reno, Nev., and over into California, where they were held up on account of the heavy snows. They waited 24 hours for roads to be opened, then gave up and drove south and west, returning to Dillard by the Coast route.

Appendicitis Report

Perley Collins, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Collins has been confined to her home the past few days with an acute attack of appendicitis. She is reported recuperating satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Heinbach motored to Grants Pass Sunday to visit their son and daughter-in-law and family, Roger and Mary Helen, who live on a large dairy ranch. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Rodolph Solnicka in their new home in Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Philip Smith and two children motored to Gold Hill Saturday spending the weekend with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith.

The red herring derived its figurative sense of something used to divert attention from the main issue because English fox hunters discovered that hounds would abandon the trail of a fox and follow that of a red herring dragged along the ground.

Vacation Begins At End Of School Tues. At Dillard

By ROSA HEINBACH

Christmas vacation for the Dillard School will begin at the close of school on Tuesday, Dec. 23, and end with the beginning of school on Monday, Jan. 5.

William Bromely, school superintendent, and Ed Cooper, principal, attended the monthly meeting of the elementary principals Saturday, at Elkton. Testing programs and types of standard tests were discussed. The method of using the test results to further the progress of the pupils were also brought out for discussion.

Next meeting of this group will be at the Dillard School Jan. 10.

The Dillard Methodist Church Christmas program will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the church. All Sunday School classes will participate in the public program.

The Dillard Sky Watch program is being carried on by the ladies in the surrounding community. Mrs. George P. Smith and Mrs. Dean F. Collins have been working hard on the project. They have completed the necessary arrangements, such as telephone, heating facilities and schedule.

This observation post is located in the garage building at the Ernest Jorgenson residence in Dillard. The leaders are very anxious to enlarge their schedule with more observers. Anyone wishing to volunteer their services for a two-hour period may contact either Mrs. Smith or Mrs. Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Flagler and children, Katy Sue and "Tuffy," left Friday for their former home in Wichita, Kan. They recently sold their ranch on East Willis Creek to Mr. and Mrs. Sanborn and family. The Sanborn family who formerly lived in Eastern Oregon have two children attending the Dillard School and two small ones at home.
