

Card And Gift Campaign Begun For Polio Victims

Friends and neighbors of a former Roseburg resident have rallied to cheer Velma Green Barrett in her first Christmas in an iron lung.

The young woman was stricken with polio about six weeks ago in San Diego, Calif., where she had joined her husband, a Navy man. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Green of 562 Pitzer St., Roseburg.

A concentrated Christmas card and gift campaign has been launched by her friends and neighbors. The stricken young Roseburg High School graduate cannot have visitors.

CRASH KILLS DRIVER

CANBY — A car and the northbound Shasta Daylight train collided Friday at a grade crossing here, killing the car driver. Police identified him as Dwight Marcus Connelly, 16, Hubbard.

Police said the youth apparently disregarded the flashing warning light at the crossing. He was returning from a school party at Molalla.

Accused Marries Woman Accuser

MERCED, Calif. — A young airman married the girl he shot with a pistol last week and, as a result, authorities will drop a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

The marriage took place Wednesday night at the hospital bedside.

Woman Upholds Husband In Attempted Slaying

SAN FRANCISCO — In a startling public statement, the victim of an alleged murder plot, Mrs. Carl Brown, has flatly contradicted the story of Charles Stoner that he tried to kill her on the promise of a fee from her husband.

"I remember everything that happened that night. I did not see Stoner," she said Friday night.

Police say Stoner admitted he had Mrs. Brown bend down to help hold an electric cord and then beat her with a hammer.

Speaking of her husband, Mrs. Brown said: "I do not believe he did it. He could not have done it. I have reasons, good reasons, to know he is being framed. If he had wanted to kill me he had plenty of chances to do it himself, he wouldn't have to hire a couple of bums."

Soviets Getting Evidence To Convict Gottwald

WASHINGTON — The State Department radio said today Moscow rulers are carefully compiling evidence which "inevitably" will be used to send President Klement Gottwald of Communist Czechoslovakia to the gallows.

"Tomorrow or the day after tomorrow," said the Voice of America, "Gottwald will inevitably be tried on the same charges which recently sent 11 of his formerly esteemed comrades to the gallows."

The Voice, broadcasting an imaginary trial of Gottwald, said the evidence against him is as overwhelming as that which was used to convict Rudolf Slansky, former Communist party secretary-general and Moscow confidante in Czechoslovakia.

One Of Mississippi Siamese Twins Dies

GREENWOOD, Miss. — One of Mississippi's four-month-old Siamese twins died in Greenwood-Leflore hospital Saturday, Hospital Administrator E. B. Sledge reported.

Sledge said doctors had not decided whether to try and separate the two. He said he did not know which of the two died.

The boys, John L. and John Ed Flowers, were the first children of Roosevelt and Maybell Flowers, Negroes.

Sledge said the two had appeared healthy and growing.

They were joined at the head in almost the exact manner that the Brodie twins of Chicago were connected.

CONVENTION SET

SEASIDE — The American Legion will hold its Oregon convention in Seaside next June 16-20, local Legion officials said here Saturday.
