

CHICKEN COOP KILLS MAN

EUGENE — A jacked-up chicken coop fell Tuesday, fatally crushing Luther Roth, who was under it.

Coroner Fred Buell said the accident occurred on Roth's property in River Road district. The department jacked up the building and got him out but he was dead on arrival at a hospital.

'They used to call me 'Fatty!'

"I weighed 295 lbs. until my doctor showed me how to reduce without starving. I lost 160 lbs. on tasty, satisfying (really) meals. Now I'm a trim size 14." If you have been "putting off" reducing, don't miss 63 of Helen Fraley's miraculous low-cost, low-calorie menus. Read The Diet That Launched a New Life—in the big January Ladies' Home Journal.

FAIR OAKS CLUB HAS HOLIDAY PARTY

Fair Oaks Home Economic's Club met last Friday at the Fair Oaks clubhouse with Mrs. Jeanette Loerts, chairman, presiding.

The Christmas program and final plans were made for the Fair Oaks Grange meeting.

A new chairman for 1953, appointed her committees as follows: Pearl Thornton and Josephine Carr, to take care of the display tables at each meeting; Maggie Francis, Roll Call; Jean Smith, Projects; Billie Williams, Sale Slips; and Jeanette Loerts, Year Book.

Roll call for January, will be "My Favorite Flower and Why."

A delicious potluck dinner was enjoyed at noon with Jeanette Loerts, as hostess, by: Maggie Francis, Dorothy Norton, Jean Smith, Billie Williams, Velma Brauning, Josephine Carr, Jeanette Loerts, Pearl Thornton and Emma Norris.

Hostesses appointed for the Jan. 16 meeting are Maggie Francis and Jean Smith.

After the meeting closed the afternoon was spent in making ornaments for the Christmas tree.

SUTHERLIN GARDEN CLUB MEETS AT HOLM HOME

The Garden Club of Sutherlin held a delightful Christmas party and meeting at the home of Mrs. Bud Holm on Southside Terrace Thursday.

A beautiful wreath and greenery were used on the entrance and the fireplace mantel was most beautifully decorated.

A short business meeting was held and a very interesting report on work that should be done in the gardens during December was given by Mrs. Tommy Minor.

Mrs. C. J. Bielman gave a Christmas reading, after which several Christmas carols were sung, with Mrs. Bielman at the piano.

A social hour was then enjoyed with the exchange of Christmas gifts.

A luncheon was served by Mrs. Bud Holm, assisted by Mrs. E. R. Holm to: Mrs. C. J. Bielman, Mrs. O. L. Torrey, Mrs. Tommy Minor, Mrs. Clifford Hein, Mrs. Floyd Squier, Mrs. Henry Halvorsen Jr., Mrs. Fayette Thompson, Mrs. Perry Allen, Mrs. Henry Halvorsen Sr., Mrs. D. B. Kesner, Mrs. Bernard Bever, Mrs. William Mardin, Mrs. Ralph League and Mrs. H. V. Church.

The next meeting will be Thursday, Jan. 15, at the home of Mrs. Clifford Hein with Mrs. William Mardin as co-hostess.

GIRL SCOUT TROUP NO. 6 MEETS AT OSTERHOUT HOME

Girl Scout Troup No. 6, held a lovely Christmas party at the Osterhout home east of Sutherlin Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 p.m.

The home was decorated beautifully for the occasion.

The girls packed a couple of boxes and took them to shut-ins and wished them a very Merry Christmas.

The troupe sent cigarettes to Santa Claus for the soldiers in Korea.

The exchange of Christmas gifts among the girls was enjoyed and each girl received a treat of fruit and candy.

Those enjoying the party were: Sheri Minor, Susan Grabow, Sharon Wood, Maureen Mullins, Marietta Carroll, Mary Pat Thatcher, Linda Johnson, Barbara Jo Haslam, Donna Carnish, Terri O'Neil, Dian Parazon, and the leaders, Mrs. Alta Osterhout and Mrs. Laneve.
