

THE CAMPBELL-JOHNSON wedding party is pictured above, following the wedding of Joyce May Johnson and Donald Brian Campbell Dec. 12 at seven o'clock in the evening at the First Methodist Church. Below, the new Mr. and Mrs. Campbell pose for their wedding picture. (Pictures by Sid Fredrickson of the Photo Lab).

Joyce Johnson Becomes Mrs. Donald Campbell

Joyce May Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Johnson of this city, became the bride of Donald Brian Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Marsters of Roseburg, at the First Methodist Church Dec. 12. Rev. Meredith Groves performed the impressive double ring ceremony at seven o'clock in the evening in the presence of 100 guests.

Silver sprays, Christmas greens and white candles formed the setting for the ceremony. Mrs. Gordon Stewart played softly on the organ as the guests assembled and also played the traditional processional and recessional marches.

Miss Joan Phillips, pianist, accompanied Miss Estelle Boudett, who sang, "Because," and "Al-ways."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a gown of white fashioned with a lace bodice and a full nylon floor-length skirt. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was held in place by a tiara of rhinestones and orange blossoms. She carried white roses tied with a net and white satin ribbon.

Velma Lankford was maid of honor and Holleen Hansen and Roberta John were bridesmaids. Miss Lankford wore pale green nylon net fashioned ballerina length. The bodice was of taffeta and the cape was of net. She carried a nosegay of carnations. The bridesmaids wore matching gowns of blue nylon net with short capes and bodices of lace. They carried carnation nosegays.

Larry Burr was best man and Dick Nickens and Vic Sanders lighted the candles.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. The beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom. The many wedding gifts were on display. Following the reception, the bride and bridegroom left for coastal points and Aberdeen, Wash., after which the bridegroom left for Norfolk, Va., where he is a yeoman aboard the USS Iowa. His bride will join him in Virginia the last of January.

For traveling the bride chose a grey suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.

The bride is employed by Umpqua Amusement Company. The bridegroom attended Roseburg

High School and Oregon State College before entering the navy.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill of Aberdeen, Wash., grandparents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson and family of Centralia, Wash., uncle and aunt and cousins of the bride.

MRS. DON HARMON ENTERTAINS GROUP AT HOME RECENTLY

Mrs. Don Harmon entertained her club Thursday. A Christmas tree cake and lighted church were used for decorations.

Visiting was enjoyed, after which Christmas gifts were exchanged and refreshments were served to: Mrs. L. W. Cottrell, Mrs. Darwin Lee, Mrs. Duncan McClean, Mrs. Don Kruse, Mrs. H. W. Conn, Mrs. Neil Christian and the hostess, Mrs. Harmon.

Mrs. H. W. Conn will entertain the club at the next meeting, Jan. 8 at 7:30 in the evening.

MR. AND MRS. BAKKEN ENTERTAIN SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bakken of Idleyld Park were hosts at a potluck supper and Christmas celebration Sunday evening.

Gifts were placed around the gaily decorated tree.

The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. James M. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Quimby, Mr. and Mrs. John Brandt, Mrs. L. C. Turner, Dave Coussell, William Webster, Walter Tolles, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hurd of Roseburg and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Bakken.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Goodposter of Roseburg were unable to be present but sent gifts.

MARILYN RUSSELL HONORED AT DANCE

Saturday evening a community dance was given as a benefit for Marilyn Russell at the new Camas Valley Grange Hall.

Emmitt Ray and his orchestra furnished the music for the dancing.

Marilyn was taken to a Portland hospital Dec. 1 for extensive treatment for a diabetic condition.

Many people furnished food for refreshments which were sold during the evening and the receipts added to the evening's fund. A large group attended and everyone had a most enjoyable time.

THE WEDDING PARTY of Edith and Wilmer R. Patterson is pictured above, following the impressive ceremony at the Assembly of God Church Dec. 16. Below, Barbara

Jean Blake, flower girl, poses for her picture. (Picture by Clarke's Studio).

Miss Edith Lee And Wilmer Patterson Marry

Miss Edith Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale C. Lee of Roseburg, was married to Wilmer R. Patterson, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Patterson of Brookings, Ore., Dec. 16, at the Assembly of God Church. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed at eight o'clock in the evening in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The father of the bridegroom officiated.

The wedding ring was carried out in the decorations and floral bouquets. The altar was centered with a large wedding ring flanked by sprays of pink chrysanthemums and greenery. Christmas trees covered with snow and silver flanked the altar and matching Christmas trees centered with candles formed the aisle decorations. The altar candles were charruase.

Miss Nancy Walker and Irene Crist were candlelighters and wore identical gowns of yellow taffeta with flower wristlets.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Venita Evans sang, "I Love You Truly," and Mrs. Vernon Klemm sang, "One Alone." As the bride and bridegroom met at the altar, Glen Hodges sang, "Because."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a deep yoke trimmed with seed pearls and a full court train. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a wedding ring bouquet centered with five pink orchids and tied with a shower of white satin ribbons.

The bride's attendants wore gowns shading from deep green to chartreuse and were fashioned of taffeta with net overskirts. Miss Venita Evans, maid of honor, wore dark green taffeta; Miss Patty McCallister and Miss Karen Patterson (sister of the bridegroom) served as bridesmaid and junior bridesmaid and Miss Barbara Jean Blake, was flower girl and carried a basket filled with pink rubrum lilies. The bride's attendants wore matching headdresses and carried wedding ring bouquets of pink rubrum lilies.

Melvin Broadbent was best man and Wayne Kifer was ringbearer. Ushers were Ray Western of Brookings, cousin of the bridegroom, and Dwight Klemm, junior attendant.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, Rev. and Mrs. Klemm sang the song, "Together," after which

Rev. Mr. Klemm gave the benediction. Mrs. Klemm played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride's mother wore a green dress trimmed in velvet. Her corsage was of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of dark aqua color and a corsage of red rosebuds and gardenias.

A reception followed at the First Christian Church, at which time the bride and bridegroom cut their wedding cake and the parents of the bridegroom cut a wedding cake in observance of their silver wedding anniversary.

The bride's table was decorated in the Christmas motif and centered with a four-tiered cake topped by a miniature bridal couple standing in a wedding ring. Rev. and Mrs. Patterson's serving table was decorated in silver and white and centered by a tiered cake flanked by tall tapers. Silver-wrapped fruit cake was given to the guests.

During the reception, saxophone solos were presented by Garmond Mindt, followed by vocal numbers. About 20 teen-age girls wearing formal gowns assisted with the serving.

The buffet table was decorated with Christmas greens and candles.

Mrs. Johanna Hauff, grandmother of the bridegroom, came from her home in Lodi, Calif., for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson are making their home in Santa Cruz, Calif., where the former is attending the Bible Academy.

MRS. ARTHUR CLARKE ENTERTAINS AT HOLIDAY DINNER CHRISTMAS DAY

Mrs. Arthur Clarke entertained at a charming holiday dinner party Christmas day at her home on South Kane Street. Covers were placed for the hostess and her two daughters and son: Miss Jane Clarke of Seattle; Miss Sally Clarke of Berkeley, Calif.; and attorney James Clarke of Portland, and Congressman and Mrs. Harris Ellsworth and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Robin.

MR. AND MRS. BROSZIO HONOR MARLA AND CONNIE BROSZIO AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Broszio entertained at dinner Sunday evening in honor of their two daughters, Marla and Connie, on their birthdays.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Seallon and children, Sherry, Phillip Jr., Mark and Carrie; Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Christie and daughter, Christina; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Henry and son, Scott, of Umpqua; Ryland Broszio and Suzanne Bennett.

Visiting and cards were enjoyed during the evening.

TERRY AXT HONORED AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. E. D. Axt entertained at her home the afternoon of Dec. 16, in honor of her son, Terry, on his second birthday.

Lovely birthday refreshments were served to Mrs. Ted Ross and son, Bruce; Mrs. George Allen Jr. and children, Skipper and Janet; Mrs. D. W. Gilland and daughter, Andrea; Mrs. Carl Moodie and daughter, Betty; Mrs. H. A. Johnson and daughters, Bobbie Ann and Judy; Mrs. Charles Dowd and son, Chris.

Terry received many beautiful birthday gifts from the guests.

WILL MARRY — Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Welty of Wilbur announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Ester-Jean, to Ralph Rudzik of Lookingglass. The wedding will take place Dec. 29 at eight o'clock in the evening at the Lookingglass Community Church.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Erickson of Chiloquin, Ore., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jennie Erickson, of Roseburg, to Gordon Markley of Seattle, Wash.

UMPQUA MINERAL CLUB MEETS AT PARISH HALL FOR PARTY

The Umpqua Mineral Club held its annual Christmas meeting, turkey dinner and election of officers for the coming year at the Episcopal Parish Hall Thursday evening with the president, Dr. Leland Van Allen in charge. Fifty-three persons attended and there was an excellent musical program presented by friends and various club members.

There was an exchange of gifts and these gifts were of mineral specimens.

The meeting concluded with the election of officers. Those elected were as follows: president, A. B. Orvin; vice-president, Mrs. Jack Hausolter; secretary - treasurer, Louise Simonsen; field and research, Jerry Long; publicity chairman, Mrs. C. W. Westlund; program chairman, Mrs. A. C. Evans; federation director, Dr. Leland Van Allen.

BIRTHDAY CLUB OF IDLEYLD PARK MEETS AT BAKKENS

The Birthday Club of Idleyld Park celebrated the birthdays of two of its members, Mrs. Merton Weaver and Mrs. J. A. Harvey Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Harry Bakken.

The members also made the occasion a Christmas party and exchanged gifts. Mrs. Bakken served delightful refreshments to Mrs. Forrest Losser, Mrs. S. E. Comfort, Mrs. G. W. McClure, Mrs. Ray Wood and the honored members, Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Harvey.

REV. AND MRS. W. R. PATTERSON, above, of Brookings Ore., celebrated their silver wedding anniversary in Roseburg the evening of Dec. 16, at a reception at the First Christian Church, following their son's wedding at the Assembly of God Church. A joint reception with the newly married Wilmer R. Patterson and Edith Lee Patterson took place. Rev. Mr. Patterson performed the wedding ceremony for his son and Edith Lee. (Picture by Clarke's Studio.)