Grocer, 71, Routs His First Would-Be Robber

PORTLAND (U) - Harry A. Harris, 71, has been in the grocery business 27 years. Not once has he been robbed but Friday morning a young man with a handkerchief over his face and a gun in his hand attempted it.

Harris said he looked at the gun, concluded it was only a toy, and with a quick motion under the counter grabbed a length of pipe and swung at the would-be robber.

"Missed him 'bout six inches," said Harris, "but man, how he ran!"

Ford Foundation Aids 100,000 Ex-Red Citizens

NEW YORK (U) - The Ford Foundation reports it has given aid, through its Eastern European fund, to 100,000 former Soviets who have reached the United States since World War II.

The foundation said the emigres have been helped to find jobs, learn English and solve their medical, legal and other problems. They are located across the United States.

FORSYTHE GUILD OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ENJOY CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual Christmas dinner and gift exchange party for members of the Forsythe Guild of the Presbyterian Church was held at the home of Mrs. Carl Lozier Thursday night.

The rooms were beautifully decorated in a blue and silver Christmas motif.

Paula Anderson, president, was in charge of the business meeting. Esther Campbell reported that the gifts sent to the Gambol Mission had been received and related Rev. L. M. Campbell's account of the unloading of the winter supplies from the long awaited ship.

Reba Hartley, program chairman, presented Elizabeth Gilchrist who gave a talk, "The Road to Christmas," as her topic, assisted by music recordings. A review of missionary work in Iraq was related by Beulah Roach. Mrs. Roach also read a letter from Rev. Dick Cochran telling some of his recent experiences in that land.

Ina Farnsworth installed the new officers in an impressive ceremony. Those who will serve during the new year are: President, Reba Hartley; Vice-president, Luella Cunningham; World service, Lena Slattery; Social, Ione Schaeffer; Spiritual Editor, Elizabeth Gilchrist; and Membership, Lois Pinkerton.

Those enjoying the occasion were: Mrs. Briner, a guest, Esther Campbell, Paula Anderson, Alta Simonson, Ethel Heathcote, Cens Stob, Luella Whitehead, Gertrude Slattery, Ione Schaeffer, Oriana Slattery, Elnore Sherk, Helen Elting, Ellen Nelson, Edna Humphrey, Beulah Roach, Elizabeth Gilchrist, Mabel Agee, and the hostess, Florence Lozier.

HEAL CLUB OF CAMAS VALLEY HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY AT WILSON HOME

The Secret Pal party of the Home Economic Club of Camas Valley was held Dec. 19 at the home of Mrs. Lee Wilson.

Mrs. Edith Booth, Mrs. Lou Cunningham and Mrs. Ruby Moore won prizes in the guessing game contest.

Gifts were exchanged with members revealing their Secret Pals, and Secret Pal names were exchanged for the coming year. Lovely refreshments were served.

Those attending the party were Mesdames: Elma Dunham, Mar Jones, Lou Cunningham, Edith Booth, Maude Johnson, Ethel Schmidt, Josie Claughton, Dorothy Papst, Daisy Kirkendall, Esther Pryor, Lois White, Ruby Moore, Hannah Taylor, Naomi Staley, Mary Smith, from Bridge; Ethel Brown, Bessie Wheeler, Marjorie Weaver, Hazel Roberts, Margaret Crouch, Lucile Counts, Jean Yoder, and Dorothy Meeks, from Glendale; Misses Judy Counts and Phyllis Crouch and the hostess, Mrs. Wilson.

MAN THEN GOT INTO HIS CAR, AND RAN THE FRONT OF THE TAPROOM, BREAKING IN THE DOOR AND SMASHING A ROW OF CUSPIDS.

He backed up and drove into the building again, tearing away part of the bar and knocking down some shelves.

Bartender Edward Gerrity called police as Mann aimed his automobile at the tavern for the third time.

The car was halfway through the building the third time when Baggett and Whitman arrived.

Mann was held in North Scranton police station.

NEW YORK (U) - A mystery phone call may have led to the Christmas Day slaying of 15-year-old Paul Peliz, whose body was found yesterday in a Bronx lot about a mile from his home.

The boy's head apparently was smashed by a 10-pound slab of concrete which was found near the fully clothed body. He had been missing from his home since dinnertime Tuesday when he left with his air rifle after a telephone conversation.

Paul's father, Emanuel, a fur worker, said he asked Paul who the caller was and the lad replied, "Oh, just a friend of mine."

When Paul failed to return by midnight Tuesday, police were notified. His body was found by a neighborhood boy playing in the junk-littered lot. Twenty cents and two keys were in his pockets.
