GRANGE MEMBERS DISCUSS FUTURE PLANS

All officers were present at the regular meeting of South Deer Creek Grange Saturday. After the committees reported, plans for future special events were discussed.

A free valentine card party will be held Saturday, Feb. 14 at 8 p.m. Grange ladies are to bring decorated cupcakes.

On Feb. 28 the Grange is planning a pie social as a benefit for Clifford Jones, a member who recently lost his foot in a logging accident. All friends and neighbors of Mr. Jones are invited.

The dime drill money collected at the last meeting was given to Mr. Jones so he could have a radio in his hospital room. Members were told that they could telephone Mr. Jones if they could not visit him.

The results of the Grange pest hunt contest were announced. South Deer Creek won second place in the Pomona contest; Riverside Grange won first, and Camas Valley Grange won third prize.

The winning side in South Deer Creek Grange was led by Bud Karcher and the losers by Don Morberg. The losing side will treat the winners to refreshments at the Feb. 21 meeting. The regular committee will not serve.

The Grange voted to enter the national Grange Achievement Project and a committee composed of Fred Karcher, Inez Stancil and Jim Bailey will be in charge of the project.

The officers meeting was postponed until March 2 by Master McGhee.

Forty members attended this meeting and heard a talk on Greenland by Floyd Haas, given during the lecture hour.
