POLIO BENEFIT
GIVEN AT TENMILE SCHOOL
A large crowd attended the polio benefit program at the ladies clubhouse in Tenmile Friday evening. The Tenmile School provided the first half of the program and the second grade gave two beautiful dance drills. The third and fourth grade flutophone band played several numbers. Three of the fifth grade pupils displayed their hobbies with Lois Stackhouse showing her collection of character dolls and Fred Dickover displaying his collection of stamps. Danny Sherman displayed his collection of plastic animals. Recitations were given by some of the sixth and seventh grade pupils. The upper grade band played several solo numbers. Those playing in the upper grade band are: Margaret Sherman, Garry Dysert, Ray Dowdy, Alex Freadman, Judy Hardenbrook, Jimmy Bell, Carl Martin, Jim Edwards, Beverly Butts, Cynthia Wambolt, Mary Erbe, John Erbe, Billy Garrison, Elmer Mills, Tommy Richards, Sammy Shafer, Kay Lakey, Claudia Garrison, Barbara Willis, Ronald Hardenbrook, Gary Macy and David Willis. Byron Westlake is instructor of the band. Following the school program the ladies of the community served refreshments. After intermission everyone enjoyed movies, which were donated by the courtesy of the Umpqua Dairy. All proceeds were turned over to the polio fund.
