

SOUTH DEER CREEK GRANGE PLANS DANCE

The regular meeting of South Deer Creek Grange was held Saturday, preceded by a potluck dinner. Twenty-six members and three guests from Astoria Grange attended.

Mrs. Johnson, Pomona lecturer, and Mr. Johnson, Pomona legislative chairman, gave interesting talks during the lecturer's hour. Following the minutes, Agriculture chairman, Frank Stancil, gave a talk on building cold frames. Home Economics Chairman Helen Anderson announced there would be no meeting this month.

The serving and clean-up committee for March is Mr. and Mrs. Ed Karcher, Mr. and Mrs. Art McGhee and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Haas.

Cliff Jones, who was injured in a logging accident and for whom the Grange gave a benefit pie social, was able to attend this meeting.

The report from the officers meeting held Monday night at the Brumback home was given by Esther Morberg. A dance with a St. Patrick's theme is planned for Saturday, March 14, at the Grange Hall. A door prize will be given. Members and friends are invited.

SCHOOL CLASSES SPONSOR DINNER AT HIGH SCHOOL

The annual Home Economics dinner, sponsored each year by the Yoncalla High School Home Economics classes, was held Thursday evening at the school. The tables were beautifully decorated with large bouquets of daffodils and tall lighted white tapers. Violet corsages were given each lady present. A delicious four-course dinner was served.

The theme of the dinner was Italian, with miniature maps of Italy used as placecards.

Girls preparing the dinner were Nancy Thompson, Betty Currier, Barbara Raper, Shirley South, Alice Pond and those serving were Helen Alsop, Shirley Butler, Lola Highley, Melba Boan, Sybil Lewey, Karen Williams and Wauneta Fleming.

Guests were: Prof. and Mrs. Cloyce Avey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caley, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mason, Mrs. Henniman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moll, faculty members, and the following board members: Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Briner, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Russell, Mr. and Mrs. George Edes, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Palmer and the Home Economics teacher, Miss Joan Cotte.

YONCALLA STUDY CLUB LUNCH AT DAY HOME

Mrs. Guy Day and Mrs. Dan Russell entertained the members of the Yoncalla Women's Study Club at the former home in Scotts Valley Thursday afternoon. Spring flowers decorated the living room, where a delicious chicken pie luncheon was served from small tables.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Dan Wright had charge of the devotion using material from "The Upper Room." Mrs. Dare Kingery read interesting articles from the new Digest.

The club decided to secure a block of names of service men who are overseas, and who desire to correspond with club members.

Mrs. Fred Merk was appointed to see about securing the names. Plans were made for "Guest Day," which will be held in the recreation room of the Yoncalla Methodist Church Thursday, with members of the Drain Study Club as guests. Miss Helen Casey of Roseburg will be the guest speaker.

Mrs. Ben Metz gave a very interesting talk on ancient and modern architecture, illustrating her talk with pictures of modern and ancient homes.

During the business session, the following officers were elected for the coming year: president, Mrs. J. N. Sparks, first vice president, Mrs. Ben Metz, second vice president, Mrs. Pat Rice, and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Dare Kingery.

BENSON BLUE BIRDS TAKE SPRING HIKE

The Busy Blue Birds of Benson School went on a "signs of spring" hike. They took special notice of the size of buds on trees and flowers and were asked to watch the progress of these buds during the next few weeks. The girls liked to hike. The hike was to the Triangle on North Jackson street and watched the Chickwee Camp Fire Group weed the flower bed they had planted late last fall. At Lilly's Flower shop the girls attempted to name all the flowers they saw through the window. Later they will visit the flower shop and also Moore's Nursery on Douglas street. Girls are still learning the "Smokey" song. Plans are being formed for a sponsors party in April.

Girls who went on the hike were: Penny Ostrander, Helen Benson, Judy Dalton, Karen Wishart, Joyce Cunniff, Sharon Newall, Pam Hannon, Sherry Wells, Melba Reed, Sharon Stark, Anne Svarrud, Lucille Street, Sharon Green and the leader, Mrs. W. H. Wishart.
