Taft Will Lead Fight To Keep Economic Aides

WASHINGTON (UP) — Senate Republican Leader Taft says he will help lead a fight to keep alive the Council of Economic Advisers in the Eisenhower administration.

Further, the Ohio senator said, he is confident the President wants to retain the Council.

Taft told the Senate this Wednesday as it voted unanimously to confirm an Eisenhower choice as a council member—Arthur F. Burns, Columbia University economics professor. The White House said Burns will study the three-member council setup and make recommendaions as to what is needed to keep the President informed on economic matters.

The council is practically out of money and all of its staff members have been given discharge slips.

A Senate-House conference committee recently refused to give the three-member council another cent for the remainder of this fiscal year ending June 30.

The committee did, however, vote to give Eisenhower $50,000 for one economic adviser and staff for the rest of the fiscal year.

Some Senate supporters of the Council have suggested a fight to reject this conference decision on the ground it would wipe out the Economic Advisory Agency, created in the 1946 Full Employment Act.

But Taft said the more practical course would be to confirm Burns at once, then battle to include funds for the Council in the regular money bill for fiscal 1954 which begins July 1. The majority leader said he was sure the President would join in this.

Jury's Verdict Swearon Insane In Killing Family

WATERVILLE, Wash. (UP) — A Superior Court jury decided Wednesday Matthias V. Swearson was insane when he killed his wife and four children last summer, and therefore was innocent of first degree murder.

The jury's verdict, brought in after only 50 minutes of deliberation, reversed an earlier verdict of guilty against him.

The 27-year-old carpenter told the court he killed his family last summer in Bridgeport because "God told me to."

In its special findings accompanying the verdict, the jury found Swearson did commit the crimes, but was innocent because of mental irresponsibility at the time and at the trial.

Judge Robert T. Hunter said he would sign an order immediately committing Swearson to the criminally insane ward at the state penitentiary.

To obtain his release later, Swearson would have to show to a Douglas County jury that his sanity was restored and that the condition would not recur, the judge said.

Four doctors testified at the second trial that Swearson was insane at the time of the killings and is now.

Bill Requires County Vote On Public Housing

SALEM (UP) — The House of Representatives, after 1½ hours of debate, voted Thursday for a bill to require county-wide elections to approve public housing projects.

The bill, approved 38 to 20, goes to the Senate.

Rep. Lee Ohmart, Salem real estate man, author of the bill, argued that housing projects should be put up to the people because it is democratic. But opponents contended that the bill's purpose is to scuttle the housing program by tying up each act of a housing authority by forcing elections to be held.

"This is simply a question of private housing vs. public housing," Ohmart said, "and housing should be decided by the will of the majority of the people.

"Public housing is a fallacy of getting something for nothing."

Rep. Monroe Sweetland, Milwaukie Democrat, said:

"This spiteful bill came out of the spleen of its authors to undermine public housing. Any act of a housing authority would be referred to the people by this bill would force the federal government to provde housing in war time by making it impossible to do it locally."

Senator Claims Wolves Howling About Prober

WASHINGTON (UP) — Sen. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) said Wednesday his Senate foreign relations subcommittee has sent a special investigator to Germany to check on the U. S. overseas information efforts "and now the wolves are out to get him."

Hickenlooper named the investigator as William Heimlich, of Columbus, Ohio. He did not say who was after him.

Hickenlooper said Heimlich became a controversial figure as head of the U. S.-Berlin radio station, popularly styled "RIAS" for radio in American sector, in the late 1940's, and "did a good job, but had to step on a lot of toes to do it, and now the wolves are out to get him — to discredit him."

Among other things, Heimlich is investigating operations of RIAS under its new management. He is on his Berlin assignment for the subcommittee as an expense-paid but non-salaried special consulate.

Ralph Nicholson, publisher of the Charlotte (N. C.) Observer, who was Heimlich's immediate superior officer in 1949, said Tuesday he had demanded Heimlich's dismissal as chief of the radio station. Nicholson then was director of public affairs for Germany with headquarters in Frankfurt.

He said he did so on grounds the station was being run uneconomically and "with a high hand" and added that he is amazed that Heimlich now is investigating RIAS for the subcommittee.

Avoiding Soviet Aggression Big Concern Of Tito

LONDON (UP) — Yugoslav President Tito Thursday discussed with Prime Minister Churchill and other top British leaders ways in which his anti-Soviet state can ward off possible Russian aggression.

The tightly guarded international conference in Britain's Whitehall government center was believed to have taken up Yugoslav's air defense against Russia's fast MIG-15 jet fighters.

Not only the Soviet Union, but most of her satellites surrounding Yugoslavia now are armed with the swift Red jet. Tito's air forces are equipped with slower and outmoded British piston-engined planes.

That weakness almost certainly was the big worry in Tito's mind as he whirled up to Westminster in a bullet-proof car with 14 police outriders to meet Churchill, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and Defense Minister Lord Alexander.

It is an open secret that Tito would like Britain to send him some of her latest type supersonic fighters which he viewed in flying demonstraiotn Wednesday. But Britain is short of these modern machines herself and has only obsolete types to spare.

Rep. Reed Takes Apparent Slap At Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (UP) — Rep. Daniel Reed (R-NY), in an apparent slap at President Eisenhower, said pledge to reduce taxes is "gaining office under false pretenses."

Speaking up shortly after Eisenhower had called for revenues, not tax cuts on June 30, the chairman of the House ways and means subcommitee said "every candidate for federal office promised to give the people, if elected, a tax reduction."

He did not mention Eisenhower by name. The President has said he did not promise tax reduction but merely set that as a goal.

Denial of the pledge to reduce taxes, "when the people are so overburdened and crushed with taxation, is unfair, dishonest and gaining office under false pretenses," Reed said.

Reed ade his stateent to reporters in announcing that he is abandoning plans to go over the heads of House leaders and force floor action on his bill to reduce personal taxes by 10 per cent June 30.

Natural Gas Line Cost $89 Million

WASHINGTON (UP) — A consruction engineer estimated Thursday the Northwest Natural Gas Co. could build a pipeline from Southwestern Alberta to Washington and Oregon for 89 million dollars.

The estimate was given by Dan S. Goodbody at a Power Commission hearing on applications for licenses to pipe natural gas to the Pacific Northwest. It is lower than construction estimates for applicants proposing to tap gas in the Northern Alberta-British Columbia area and the San Juan Basin field in Colorado and New Mexico.
