Ex-Newsman Of Portland Dies

PORTLAND (AP) —Graham Glass, Sr., 86, who as a newspaper publisher reportedly built a small fortune in wheat during the 1890 depression, died here Wednesday after a day's illness.

Glass took the wheat in payment for subscriptions to his newspapers in McMinnville and Dallas. When the depression was over, he had $14,000. With this nest egg, he founded a printing company in Portland and became wealthy.

In a half century of life in Portland, Glass was active in politics, civic affairs, sports and his church. He retired from business 30 years ago.

His printing concern, Glass and Prudhomme, became one of the largest in the Northwest. Among his activities were: Chairman of the state Republican Central Committee, a Portland city commissioner, chairman of a committee that began development of the Portland waterfront, one of the original owners of the Portland baseball team when it entered the Pacific Coast League, and an owner and director of the Portland entry in the old Northwest Baseball League.

Four Armory Projects Held Back By Freeze

SALEM (AP) — Four Oregon armory construction projects are being held back by the Defense Department freeze on new work, Col. Paul L. Kliever said Thursday.

Kliever, director of armories for the Oregon National Guard, said there was no nformation here on when the freeze would be ended.

Affected are three projects for which bids had been called: Additions to existing armories at Baker and The Dalles, and a new armory at Milton-Freewater. Also affected is an addition to the Forest Grove armory. That project was ready for bids but they had not yet been called.

Kliever said the freeze order prohibits both contract awards and calls for bids.

the OTHER THIEF...

A flippant young man had just been urged by his companion to attend to spiritual matters. Unimpressed, he shrugged his shoulder and answered, "I've still got a lot of time for religion. Remember the thief on the cross?"

"Which one?" asked the more serious young man.

Yes, which one? There were two thieves crucified with Christ. For one the eleventh hour was too late.

Someone has said, "He who postpones repentance a single day has one more day to repent of and one less day to repent in."

The Bible tells us: "Now is the accepted time. Now is the day of salvation." Now is the time to repent of our personal sins and to turn to Jesus Christ for mercy and pardon.

If you have not yet found forgiveness for your sins through faith in the Christian Gospel, our Church extends to you a most hearty invitation.

United States Challenges Russia To Show Her Intent

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The United States challenged Russia Wednesday to demonstrate in the current U. N. disarmament debate that Prime Minister Georgi M. Malenkov sincerely wants to settle world problems peacefully.

The challenge was made by U. S. Delegate Ernest A. Gross, who led off the disarmament discussion in the General Assembly's 60-nation political committee. As he spoke, Soviet Delegate Georgi N. Zarubin listened intently.

At the outset, Gross said Soviet leaders have talked much about peace in the past few days. He added:

"I hope Prime Minister Malenkov's use of the word 'peace' is the same as the word is understood by the rest of the world."

At any rate, he said, if the Russians are sincere one of the first places they can show it is on the question of disarmament. He called on them for some indication that they are now ready to negotiate in good faith.

Gross put two questions to Zarubin:

1. Is this the time when the Soviet government is willing to discuss constructively the question of disarmament?

2. Is this the forum where the Soviet representative will negotiate with his colleagues on the question?

He said he was not demanding a quick answer.

Gross then reviewed briefly the disarmament proposals put forward last year by the Western powers and those offered by Russia. He warned that the United States would never agree to the flat one-third reductions of arms demanded by Russia and would not agree to any disarmament until a system of verification and inspection was set up.

He said Russia had rejected the Western proposals for disclosure and verification of armed strength and, at the same time, had failed to explain their own "vague" proposals.

ANOTHER FATALITY

PORTLAND (AP) — The traffic toll in Portland is up to 15 for the year. The latest recorded victim was Pete Wangmo, Portland. An autopsy report Wednesday said he died Monday of injuries from an auto accident, instead of from natural causes, as had been suspected.
