

Hobo Party Is Most Delightful Affair

A MOST INTERESTING VISITOR in Roseburg Tuesday and Wednesday was Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, Portland, above right, who is state president of the Republican Council of Oregon Women Inc., who was photographed with Mrs. J. V. Short, left, a director of the organization here for the last five years. (Picture by Paul Jenkins).

Mrs. Gerlinger has many friends in Roseburg, having visited here a number of times. She has been one of the outstanding women workers for the Republican Women of Oregon and from 1940 to 1948 served as national committee woman.

She only recently attended the presentation of the monuments of Jason Lee and John McLoughlin, Oregon pioneers, on the national capitol grounds in Washington, D. C. While there, she states she enjoyed a visit with Charles A. Brand, former Roseburg resident, who is there visiting his daughter.

In 1951, Mrs. Gerlinger spent three months touring Europe and conditions which she found in those countries made her even more anxious to awaken American citizens to the full meaning of democracy and why it must be made to work as the Constitution of the United States defines it. She plans to sail May 20 for England to attend the coronation, after which she will spend three months touring the Scandinavian countries.

A meeting of the Roseburg Chapter of the Republican Council of Oregon Women Inc., was held at the Umpqua Hotel Wednesday, at which time officers were unanimously elected.

Officers include: Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, chairman; Mrs. Thomas Hatfield, first vice chairman; Mrs. J. V. Short, second vice chairman; Mrs. John Preston, corresponding secretary; Miss Irene Walker, recording secretary; and Mrs. T. B. Virden, treasurer.

Directors include: Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. O. C. Brown, Miss Olive Walker, Mrs. Roy O. Young, Mrs. Paul Geddes, Mrs. John Kilop, Mrs. Thomas Parkinson, Mrs. Harrison Winston and Mrs. R. E. Herman.

Mrs. Gerlinger is the mother of three very charming daughters, Mrs. William Swindells, Portland, whose husband is general manager of the Gerlinger Lumber Mills and logging camps; Mrs. Harley Stevens, who with her attorney husband resides in San Francisco, following a residence in the Middle East, and Mrs. Robert C. Kirkwood Jr., whose husband is comptroller of California. The Swindells have two sons and two daughters.

On this trip Mrs. Gerlinger was accompanied by Mrs. E. J. Swindells and Mrs. Wilson Johnston, both of Portland. The three will visit in California and Mrs. Gerlinger will attend the Charter Day celebration at University of California as the guest of President and Mrs. Robert Gordon Sproul. She was graduated from U. of C., according to her, "a good many years ago."

State officers besides the president, Mrs. Gerlinger, include: Mrs. John Y. Richardson, first vice president; Miss Harriet E. Monroe, second vice president; Mrs. Philip Buehner, third vice president; vice presidents of first Cong. Dist. Mrs. Theo Roaholt, Corvallis; Mrs. Hanover Deady, Oswego; and Mrs. James H. Cellars, Astoria. Vice presidents, second Cong. Dist. Mrs. Clara Curry, Eugene; Mrs. J. H. Mills, North Bend; and Mrs. A. J. Buel, Grants Pass. Mrs. James T. Gault, Corvallis, recording secretary; Mrs. Maybelle Clark Munro, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. S. H. Sheldon, treasurer.

Trustees include: Mrs. Leith F. Abbott, Mrs. Thomas W. Dant, Mrs. John K. Hubbard and Mrs. Waldemar Seton Jr., all of Portland, and Mrs. R. T. Burnett, Eugene. Honorary vice presidents are: Dr. Mabel Akin, Mrs. R. E. Bondurant and Mrs. Willis S. Dunaway, all of Portland, and Miss F. Ina Burgess, Eugene.

Houseguests — Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Groshong, 955 Chapman, Laurelwood, had as guests recently Dr. Grant Bunch of Medford and Mrs. Albert Mount and daughter, Ellen, of Oregon City. Mrs. Mount's husband was the late Dr. Mount, a prominent Oregon physician.

PROMOTED TO CORPORAL — Eleanor May Rumsey, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rumsey, 1630 Cedar St., Roseburg, is now a corporal in the WACS. She was graduated from Roseburg High School in 1951. After enlisting in the WACS, Miss Rumsey was sent to Camp Lee, Va., for her basic training, after which she went to Fort Sam Houston, Tex., for her training as a dental technician. She is now stationed at Camp Kilmer, N.J.
