

Mexican Plane Crash Kills 14

MONTERREY, Mexico (AP)—Rescue parties struggled into rugged Devil's Back Canyon today to reach the burned wreckage of a government-owned plane that crashed Monday en route to the U. S.-Mexican fiesta, officially opening the Rio Grande's Falcon Dam.

Estimates of the number aboard ranged from the officially reported 14 believed to have been assigned seats on the two-engine DC3 to 20 or more. Two of those on the official passenger list of 14 turned up elsewhere.

It smashed into the side of the canyon, only about 15 miles from

U. S. Lieutenant Accused In Death Of Italian Major

NOVARA, Italy (AP)—A former Italian partisan testified Tuesday that a United States lieutenant engineered the slaying of his commanding officer "in order to be free to favor the Reds."

The partisan, Aminta Migliari, took the stand at the second day of the trial of two Americans and three Italians charged with the cloak-and-dagger murder of Maj. William Holohan of New York City behind Nazi lines in northern Italy in 1944.

The Americans, former Lt. Aldo Icardi of Pittsburgh, Pa., and former Sgt. Carl Lo Dolce of Rochester, N. Y., are being tried in absentia. U.S. courts ruled they could not be extradited for prosecution in Italy.

Migliari and two other wartime partisans, Giuseppe Mannini and Gualtiero Tozzini, are on trial in person.

Migliari testified that prior to his death Holohan had instructed the Allies to cease parachuting arms to Italian partisans "because he found out the Communists were getting most of them."

After Holohan's death, Migliari continued, Icardi radioed his headquarters "to parachute arms almost every day." At times when the arms were expected, Migliari testified, Icardi, entertained non-Communist partisans while the Communists collected the supplies.

The witness also testified that Icardi, charged by the government with planning Holohan's murder, "was very friendly with Vincenzo Moscatelli"—a top partisan leader during the war and now a Communist deputy.

Holohan, who headed the office of Strategic Services mission behind enemy lines, was shot to death Dec. 6, 1944. The government confirmed the murder by finding his body in Lake Orta in 1950. Lo Dolce is accused of firing the fatal shot after an attempt to poison the major failed.

Henry Huff, Convicted Communist, Out On Bail

SEATTLE (AP)—Henry P. Huff, one of five Communists convicted in Federal Court here of conspiring to teach and advocate violent overthrow of the government, was released from the King County jail Monday after $20,000 bond was posted for him.

Huff, 59, Washington State Communist chairman, was the second of the five defendants released.

Paul M. Bowen, Negro Communist organizer, was freed on $20,000 bail after he and the other defendants were sentenced last Friday.

Terry Pettus, John S. Daschbach and Mrs. Barbara Hardie remained in jail.

Federal Judge William J. Lindberg, who presided at the 25-week trial, set bail for each of the five at $20,000 after passing sentence. Defense attorneys are preparing to appeal the convictions to the U.S. Circuit Court.

Club Swinging Police Beat Back Italians

ROME (AP)—Club-swinging police beat back protesting Italian students in front of the Russian embassy Tuesday as demonstrations over the disputed Free Territory of Trieste broke out in various parts of Rome.

The students answered the police club attacks with sticks. Many of the demonstrators were bruised but no serious injuries were reported.

Hundreds paraded elsewhere, carrying Italian flags, angrily shouting against Yugoslav President Tito's stand on Trieste and demanding the strategic Adriatic peninsula be returned to Italy.

Some of the demonstrators marched past the Yugoslav legation near the heart of the city but no violence was reported as mobile riot police, armed with submachine guns guarded the building.

Trieste Division Only Solution, Says Sec. Eden

LONDON (AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden said Tuesday the division of the troubled Trieste Free Territory along the present zonal border "seems to be the only practicable" method of easing Italian-Yugoslav tensions.

Eden told the House of Commons that Britain strongly deprecates the movement of troops by either Italy or Yugoslavia.

"This can only increase tension and incite public opinion," he said. "If all concerned will recall the overriding need for unity between nations who should be good neighbors, I believe that we may yet find means of bringing both parties to agree to a settlement."

Both Eden and Prime Minister Churchill expressed hope the Soviet Union will accept an invitation to a proposed meeting of four-power foreign ministers Nov. 9 in Lugano, Switzerland.

Eden said such a meeting could "make progress toward a settlement of the German and Austrian questions, and so contribute to a significant reduction in world tension."

The car rolled and Long was dead on arrival at a hospital here.

The four are Elmer McClure, Milwaukie, the incumbent; Ralph Rogers, Eugene; George Murphy, Portland; and William G. Howes, Medford.
