Theanna M. Hayes Becomes Bride Nov. 7 Of Daniel L. Thornbrue In Canyonville

Theanna M. Hayes, daughter of Mrs. George Schwentner of Canyonville, and Everett Hayes, Benicia, Calif., became the bride of Daniel LeRoy Thornbrue, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Thornbrue of Canyonville, Nov. 7, in the Canyonville Methodist Church.

The Rev. O. L. Kendall performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of 50 guests. Modesta Cabaton, pianist, played "Always," "Leta Fae Arnold sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." Lohengrins Wedding March was played.

White tapers on the altar and piano, two large baskets of white stock, pompons and white carnations, and three baskets of mixed colored chrysanthemums, formed the decorations.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her step-father, wore a floor-length gown of white slipper satin with nylon net bodice, lace sleeves and nylon net overskirt. Her veil was held by a lace halo cap with a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Delbert Davis, sister of the bride from Days Creek, was matron of honor. She wore a yellow formal gown with a white gardenia corsage.

Bridesmaid Orna Thornbrue wore an orchid formal gown with an orchid corsage. The formal gown of Janet Bowers, another bridesmaid, was aqua and her corsage was of white fuchsias.

Flower girls were Mary Ellen Bierward and Virginia Clifton. Mary Ellen wore a floor-length taffeta gown in light gold and a white florette corsage. Virginia's floor-length gown of coral taffeta was worn with a blue florette corsage.

Candlelighters were Virginia Huffman, who wore a blue formal gown and Donna Fitzpatrick, who was gowned in a yellow formal.

Tom Hall, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Walter Garland and Norman Jones. Leonard Clifton Jr., was ringbearer.

Fifty guests attended the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Schwentner at the church after the ceremony. The bride and bridegroom, her parents, and Mr. and Mrs. John Thornbrue were in the receiving line.

The reception table was decorated with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and bridegroom and large pale pink roses. The cake was flanked by tapers and at each end of the table was a basket of white roses, pink gladioli and white stock.

The bride's mother wore a grey dress with navy accessories and a corsage of pale pink fuchsias. The mother of the bridegroom wore a blue dress with black accessories and a white fuchsia corsage.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hall of Roseburg, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Marie Bridge of Wolf Creek, aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thornbrue of Monmouth, grandparents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thornbrue and two children of Monmouth.

The bride has lived in Canyonville six years and attended Canyonville High School. The bridegroom, who has lived in Canyonville five months, attended Cloverdale High School in Monmouth and was a member of the U. S. National Guard and the National Guard of Oregon.
