EDEN LADIES AID HEARS ELSA HUNTER

A most enjoyable afternoon was spent Monday when the Eden Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Elsa Hunter. The meeting, conducted by the president, Mrs. Nelda Sand, opened with group singing of Christmas carols. Rev. Peters led the devotions. Mrs. Hunter gave an interesting account of Christmas in Sweden and told of the traditions there. Plans were made to have a Christmas program Sunday, Dec. 27, at 7 p.m. at the Eden Lutheran Church. During the social hour refreshments will be served. Residents of the community are invited.

Clean-up day at the church was planned for Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. Coffee will be served. Luncheon was served by Mrs. Hunter to Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Bloomquist, Mrs. Emilie Hargreheimer, Mrs. Oscar Backlund, Mrs. Edna Sjogren, Mrs. Mabel Backlund, Mrs. Ivan Buell, Mrs. Nelda Sand and Debra; Mrs. Hanson and Rev. Peters.

WCTU ANNUAL PARTY TO BE HELD TUESDAY

The annual Christmas party and the December meeting of the WCTU will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 22, at the home of Mrs. R. D. Knigge, 426 Fullerton St. The business session will convene at 1:30 P.M. followed by a special Christmas program.

There will be no exchange of Christmas gifts, but those desiring to do so will bring gifts for the children at the WCTU Children's Farm Home, Corvallis or bring a small cash offering for the piggy bank which will be sent to the Portland Cottage at the Farm Home. This cottage has been adopted as a special project of the Roseburg Union and the small bank will be for the cottage as a whole to use as they wish at Christmas time.

MEN OF DAYS CREEK PTA SERVE BENEFIT SUPPER

A bean supper, cooked and served by the men of the Days Creek PTA, preceded the monthly meeting Wednesday. The proceeds will go for the children's Christmas candy.

Those active on the supper committee were: Earl Rice, Ray Hudson, Burl Babb, W. C. Thrall, Fran Lynn, Fran Sincomb, Cleo Knight, Joe Harvey, Earl Ashbaugh and Vaughn Bennett.

During the meeting Mrs. Burl Babb, president, appointed Mrs. Earl Ashbaugh, Mrs. Hal Bergman, Mrs. Knighten and Mrs. Gene Brady to a committee to sack the Christmas candy. The work will be done at Mrs. Brady's home. The room count was won by the fifth and sixth grades, with fourteen parents present.

Entertainment for the February PTA meeting will be supplied by the Days Creek teachers. Mrs. Babb appointed Mrs. Frank Lee chairman. A social gathering for New Year's Eve at Lavador was announced by Mr. Lynn.

Speaker for the evening was Sgt. Wheatly, of the Ground Observers Corps in Roseburg. The program of the air watch is being carried out at Days Creek on a limited scale, by 17 high school girls, captained by Miss Sandra Gale and using the school office phone. Superintendent Yoder announced that a phone has been put in the boiler room of the school, so people won't have to use the office phone and the program can now be expanded to townspeople.

Sgt. Wheatly urged that everyone be as interested in their country's welfare as the high school students and sign up now for air watch. People may sign up either at the school, or with Mrs. Fritz Snyder, supervisor of the program in Days Creek.

Entertainment was provided by Ray Hudson and Howard Walton, accompanied by Mrs. Hudson. Sgt. Wheatly showed a movie on the atom bomb after the meeting was adjourned.

WILBUR-WINCHESTER PTA MEETING HELD

Wilbur-Winchester PTA met Friday at the Winchester grade school.

Cloyd Riffe, head of the Music Department of the Roseburg schools, was speaker of the evening. It was most interesting to note the wonderful work he is doing in the schools with music for the students.

Mrs. Spackman's 3rd grade room presented several Christmas numbers to add to the entertainment of the evening.

The business meeting consisted mostly of preparations for the children's Christmas treats.

The traveling award for the month was in favor of Mrs. Spackman's room.

The mothers of Mrs. Foster's 2nd grade room served lovely refreshments of Christmas cookies and coffee to the adults and popcorn balls and punch to the children.
