MR. AND MRS. DAVID L. COTTRELL, above, cut the traditional first piece of their wedding cake following their marriage Dec. 5 at 8 p.m. at Bethel Congregational Church in Beaverton. The bride was formerly Suzanne Templeton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Templeton of Beaverton. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. and Mrs. Ward Cottrell, 2801 N. Stephens St., Roseburg. (Picture by Gladys Gilbebrt).

Suzanne Templeton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Templeton, of Beaverton became the bride of David Leo Cottrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cottrell, Roseburg, Dec. 5 at a double ring ceremony at 8 p.m. in Bethel Congregational Church in Beaverton. The Rev. Albert King performed the ceremony in the presence of 160 guests.

Two large baskets of white chrysanthemums and poinsettias and decorations carrying out the Christmas theme formed a beautiful setting for the ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Frances Cook sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Albert King, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length white satin gown trimmed in lace with a matching lace-crown holding her finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Audrey Enger of Beaverton was maid of honor and wore a floor-length gown of red silk velvet and carried a white muff with a large poinsettia blossom. She wore a white fur coronet.

Leroy Cottrell, Roseburg, was best man for his brother and Harold Lee Smith of Oregon City, cousin of the bride, and Bill True, Roseburg, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a ballerina length natural linen lace dress with ginger accessories while the bridegroom's mother wore a rose crepe dress with black accessories. Both wore chrysanthemum corsages.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Raymond Hale, Cobby, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Naomi Hougen, Gresham, godmother of the bride, poured while Mrs. Muri Smith of Beaver Creek, aunt of the bride, cut the bride's cake assisted by Mrs. Bob Thompson of Beaverton. Arleen Murphy of Beaverton presided at the punch bowl and Miss Ra Nae Cottrell was in charge of the guest book assisted by Miss Shirley Cottrell of Roseburg, Etta Lue Harris and Colleen Shaw of Portland, school friends from Oregon Technical Institute, where the bride and bridegroom formerly were students.

For traveling the bride chose a two-tone gray suit with red accessories.

Following a honeymoon to California and Nevada, Mr. and Mrs. Cottrell are now at home to their friends at 958 1/2 Riverside Drive, Roseburg.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cottrell, Ra Nae, Shirley and Leroy Cottrell, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Seitz and Bill True of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. James Van Court of Fall Creek, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hauge of Silverton.
