Kenneth Day, Jeanne Wampole, the bride and bridegroom, Frances Lengele, Vernon Wampole, Lyndon Lengele, Lester Wampole, Warren Lengele and the ring bearers, Dennis Petersen and Jimmy Langdon. (Picture by Alyce Studio, Woodburn).

The First Presbyterian Church at Woodburn was the setting for a beautiful wedding Sunday, Nov. 22, when Miss Gertrude Wampole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Wampole of Woodburn, was wed to Howard A. Lengele, son of Mrs. Marvin Lengele of Prineville and the late Mr. Lengele. The bridegroom was formerly of Roseburg and Winston. Tall baskets of white chrysanthemums and candelabra entwined with ivy and white blossoms decorated the sanctuary, while the pews were marked with ribbon bows and white flowers. Mrs. Alfred Moon, organist, accompanied the soloists, Richard Moon and Miss Harriet Nizic and also played the traditional wedding marches. The candles were lighted by two of the ushers, Lyndon Lengele and Vernon Wampole.

The double ring service was read by the pastor, the Rev. Robert E. Van, at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Lester Wampole gave his sister in marriage. She wore a gown of white lace and satin fashioned with a fitted bodice of lace, pointed in front and back; long lace sleeves and low scalloped neckline with sequin and pearl trim. The skirt of slipper satin extended into a full court train. The fingertip veil of net was held in place by a small cap of seed pearls. The bride wore her grandmother's bracelet and carried a white Bible topped by two large orchids.

Mrs. Lester Wampole, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and wore an orchid taffeta gown fashioned similarly to the gown of the bride. She carried an old fashioned nosegay. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Harold Peterson, Portland, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Kenneth Day of Roseburg, sister of the bridegroom; and Mrs. Willard Begin of Gervais, who wore green taffeta gowns and carried old fashioned nosegays. Junior attendants were Janice and Jeanne Wampole, who wore pink organdy and carried nosegays. Ring bearers were Dennis Petersen, Portland, and Jimmy Langdon, Aurora.

Best man was Francis Lengele, Prineville, brother of the bridegroom, and ushers were Lyndon Lengele, brother of the bridegroom, Roseburg, and Vernon Wampole, brother of the bride. The bride's mother wore a blue crepe dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a grey dress with black accessories. Both wore orchid corsages. At the close of the ceremony, the couple knelt as Richard Moon sang.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Oscar E. Nelson of North Richland, Wash., aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Darrell Wade of Roseburg, presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Francis Lengele served the punch. Mrs. Joseph Serres had charge of the guest book and the gift table was in charge of Mrs. Harold Colgan and Mrs. Russell Blevans. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Roy P. Kuns, Mrs. Margaret Johnston, Mrs. Fred Miller and Mrs. Lillie Mohr of Salem and assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Leo Schindler, Orchard, Wash., aunt of the bride; Mrs. Guy Engle and Miss Karen Kuns.

Mr. and Mrs. Lengele left for a wedding trip to points of interest in the north, after which they went to Aurora to make their home. For traveling Mrs. Lengele chose a grey flannel suit with white accessories and her corsage was an orchid.

Mr. Lengele was formerly owner of Howard's Hardware in Roseburg and Winston.
