

Antennae To Boost The Scope Of Glide's Only Television Set

By MRS. ARTHUR SELBY

Mr. and Mrs. James Welch, owners of the first and only television set in the Glide area, are adding two more antennae to bring in Channel 5 (Medford) and Channel 13 (Eugene).

At present, they had only one, Channel 6, Portland. The Welches still have a stream of visitors to see their television.

Watch Meet Held
The Glide Baptist Church held a watch meeting Thursday evening, starting at 8:30 p.m. Games were played and refreshments served. At 11 p.m. devotional services were held until the New Year arrived.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Childers and family spent Christmas holidays at Albany visiting Childers' mother, Mrs. Edna Childers. The occasion was a family reunion. Present were Childers' three sisters and their families, Mr. Ted Anderson of Crawfordville, Mrs. John Basil of Stayton, Mrs. Marcella Stillwell, Hoquiam, Wash., and a brother, Victor Childers, and family from Klamath, Calif. Eighteen grandchildren of Mrs. Edna Childers surrounded the Christmas tree, awaiting their gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bakken were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hurd of Roseburg on New Year's day.

Employee Arrives
Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Collison of Clatskanie arrived with their trailer house at the North Umpqua Trailer Court. Collison is an experienced employee with the J. R. Saxton Construction Co. which holds the North Umpqua highway paving contract.

Douglas Jones, employed at the government ammunition depot at Bangor, Wash., spent the New Year's holidays with his wife and sons, Mark and Stanley, who are living at the home of Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob McEwen.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hinshaw of Independence spent the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Hinshaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hamlin. Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Shelton and family drove to Forest Grove to visit over New Year's with Shelton's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shaeffer, and watch the Rose Bowl game on television.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Nowland of Vallejo, Calif., stopped on their way home after spending Christmas holidays in Eugene, to visit Mrs. Nowland's sister, Mrs. Belle Dunlap.

The Rev. Karl Faulkner, Juanita and Lynette Cole, Emily Sinnott, David Shrum and Ronny Dell motored to Eugene to attend the State Conservative Baptist Youth Rally held Dec. 29 and 30 at the First Baptist Church at Eugene. Over 500 delegates attended the meetings. Recreation periods included basketball games in the double gymnasium in the new Eugene High School building.

Medley's Visit
Mr. and Mrs. Lucky Medley of Toketee Falls visited friends Thursday while they awaited the arrival of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harris, and baby son from River Bank, Calif., who were arriving by car to spend New Year's holidays at Toketee Falls.

J. E. Sullivan and daughter, Margie, Katherine and Betty Ferguson, drove to Eugene last Tuesday to attend the Christian Church Youth Rally. They returned Wednesday evening.

The Rev. Royal Gardner, former pastor of the Glide Christian Church, moved with his family to Eugene Dec. 22. The Rev. Mr. Gardner will complete his religious training at the Northwest Christian College, Dr. R. L. Dunn of Roseburg will act as temporary pastor of the Glide church. He expects to move into the new parsonage later.

Miss Derfla Dunn of Santa Monica, Calif., daughter of Dr. R. L. Dunn of Roseburg, gave a vocal recital at the Northwest Christian Church last Wednesday. Mrs. Glenn Murdoch of Roseburg was Miss Dunn's accompanist.

Miss Ellen Turner joined her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Barclay, of Roseburg, to drive to Portland for the new Year's holidays.

Deaf Mute Club Raided, Police Forced To Write

CLEVELAND — Police had to hold a written conversation during a liquor raid here Sunday night.

After a period of questions and answers, the bartender was arrested on a charge of selling liquor on Sunday.

The clubroom is rented by the Cleveland Assn. for the Deaf and all of those present were deaf mutes.

East Germany Strikes Still Plague Soviet

WASHINGTON — A State Department publication says the Soviet-backed rulers of East Germany are practicing terrorism but reportedly are still encountering sidown strikes and work stoppages.

Geoffrey W. Lewis wrote in the State Department Bulletin that several thousand participants in the June revolt of Gormans, including women and children, are reported to "have been seen loaded aboard trains headed for the Soviet Union."

Lewis, head of the Office of German Affairs, said some Communist leaders "heads have rolled" and that there are indications of a purge of those who favored leniency toward the rebels and major changes in the party program.

PROWLER SENTENCED

KLAMATH FALLS — Charles Jack Bender, 18, who began a career of house and car theft and escapes from police at the age of 14, was sentenced here Monday to five years in the Oregon State Prison.

Bender was indicted last month by the grand jury on a charge of burglary in a dwelling at night. Police said he admitted prowling 11 houses in this area. Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg pronounced sentence.

Evening Classes Set At Oakland

By EDITH DUNN

Beginning Wednesday, Jan. 6, at 7 p.m., Oakland High School will conduct evening classes for adults. There will be courses in public speaking, typing, mechanical drawing and mathematics.

Chamber Meets
The Oakland Chamber of Commerce met Monday night for dinner and a business session. Guest speaker was Jake Leicht, former football star and now county probation and parole officer. The Oakland High School football team attended the meeting.

Class To Meet
The Ladies Bible Class of Oakland will meet Friday, Jan. 8, at 2 p.m. at the Parish Hall. Mrs. Ruth Gildbreath will be hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Warner and daughter, Rosa, recently spent several days at Myrtle Point and Coos Bay.

Guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Warner were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Collier of Creswell. Collier is a teacher there.

Mrs. Pearl Harvey has been spending several days in Portland with her grandson, Mac Hogan and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Perry of Live Oak, Calif., recently visited Mrs. Perry's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Anglin, and her sister, Mrs. Jesse Hutchings, and family. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beckett of Sutherlin.

Anglins Visit
Mr. and Mrs. John Anglin were Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Southard of Sutherlin.

Holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Stuve were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hanna of Salem. Mrs. Margaret Brown and sons, Stanley and Jerry were also Christmas dinner guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Carlson of Ilwaco, Wash., were Oakland visitors the past week. They are former Oakland residents.

Holiday guests of Dr. and Mrs. Homer M. Noble were their sons, Vance, who is a teacher at Dayton, and Hugh of Brockway.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Dunn spent New Year's Day with their son, John and family in Scotts Valley.
