Baker Democrat Plans To Run For State Office

PORTLAND — Albert C. Ullman, Baker advocate of a federal dam in Hells Canyon of the Snake River, indicated Tuesday he may run for political office.
Friends said Ullman is a likely candidate for governor or Eastern Oregon congressman. Ullman is a Democrat.
"I have been in the middle of this resource fight for years, and I'm not going to walk out on it now. If in my opinion it becomes necessary to get into the political battle on any level to protect Oregon's stake in its rivers and to keep the issue clean and respectable for the voters of Oregon, I will not hesitate to do so," Ullman said in a prepared statement.

Lower Voting Age Practice In Other Nations Of World

WASHINGTON — If the United States lowers the voting age to 18, as President Eisenhower proposes, it will fall in line with the practice of Mexico, Argentina, Turkey and the Soviet Union.
Those are the only major countries which permit their citizens to start casting ballots at 18. Mexico lets 18-year-olds vote only if they're married. Otherwise they must wait until they're 21.
Switzerland and Germany fix the minimum voting age at 20. Most other countries — including Great Britain, France, Italy and Canada — hew to the practice the United States has traditionally followed and set the voting age at 21.
Norway, however, makes its citizens wait until they're 23. Holland and Finland insist on 24.
Three countries — Japan, Spain and Denmark — have a minimum voting age of 25.
No country sets an upper age limit on voting.
In this country only Georgia has lowered the voting age to 18. The argument advanced there is the one Eisenhower invoked in last Thursday's State of the Union message:
"For years our citizens between the age of 18 and 21 have, in time of peril, been summoned to fight for America. They should participate in the political process that produces this fateful summons."
Russia, says the Encyclopedia Britannica, lets 18-year-olds vote on the theory they're already industrially productive and "the earlier the age at which one begins to vote, within reason, the sooner is one politically educated."
The U. S. Constitution does not fix the age of first voters. At present that's up to the individual states. What Eisenhower wants is a constitutional amendment setting the age at 18 in all states.

LUMBER FIRM FOLDS
McMINNVILLE — The Leadbetter Logging & Lumber Co. announced here its doors would be closed permanently this week. The 36-year-old firm employed 140 persons in World War II, but closed its logging and mill operations four years ago, and has operated as a retail yard since then.
