RIVERSDALE HEC PLANS ACTIVITIES

The first Riverside Grange Home Economics Club meeting of 1954 was held at the hall Friday with the usual potluck luncheon at 12:30. The tables were beautifully set in a "Winterland" motif, with handmade figurines on skis and ice skates, on a background of cotton snow, and mirror ice rinks. Each place was set with popcorn ball favors made by the hostesses, Ethel Fuller and Essie Olson.

After the luncheon, the business meeting was conducted by the chairman, Ethel Walker, Millie Beckwith, secretary, and Ethel Youngren, treasurer. Outline plan of the year's committees and activities was presented and discussed. The first main event of the year will be the annual "smorgasbord dinner" Saturday, Feb. 27 and will be open to the public. Other events will be announced later.

This will be a busy year for the Riverside Grange and its HE Club, as the 25-year celebration of the Riverside organization will be Sept. 5, and all plans are centering around this occasion. There are still nine charter members who will be honored and take part in this celebration.

The HE Club wishes to announce their plans for the next Pomona meeting and potluck dinner which will be held at the Riverside Grange Hall, Jan. 30, at 7 p.m. All other Granges attending are to bring salads and desserts. The meat, rolls, and hot dishes will be furnished by Riverside. The program theme will be "Hawaii." Colored slides will be shown during the lecture hour by Bertha Beck, former Oregon State Grange secretary, who took the pictures during her visit to the islands. During the dinner hour, Hawaiian music will be played, with other added attractions with the same theme. All members are urged to come.

EVERGREEN GRANGE MEETS FRIDAY

Evergreen Grange met at the hall Friday evening with the master, Rubie Bloom, in charge. Committees gave reports and the lecturer, Josephine Parkhurst, presented a program including a reading and games.
