Protestant Group Issues Protest Of Hughes' Film

NEW YORK (AP)—A powerful protest group has joined the attack on Howard Hughes' movie "The French Line."

The Christian Herald magazine and the Protestant Motion Picture Council's National Reviewing Group said this week in a joint statement that the movie is "an offense to all decent people both on the grounds of morals and plain good taste."

The council says it speaks for 48 million American protestants. The Roman Catholic National Legion of Decency on Monday put the film in its "condemned" classification.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling, editor of the magazine, said both the publication and the council oppose relaxing of the present motion picture code. Dr. Poling added: "To me and to most of the churchmen of my faith, the case

Secretary Weeks Refuses Butter Export To Russia

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Weeks has refused to let a Minnesota exporter ship surplus American butter to Russia.

The Commerce Department announced that Week's had formally denied an export license to Dwayne Andreas of the Homeyead Co., Mankato, Minn. The department gave no further details on Week's action.

The secretary told newsmen last Friday he would not approve a license to permit shipment of butter to Russia at a cost "considerably lower" than prices paid by American housewives.

of "The French Line" is indication enough that the code does not need any revising downward but rather a more rigid application of the industry's self-censoring determination."

Sobbing Gypsies Follow Queen's Funeral Coach

PORTLAND (AP)—Sobbing Gypsies followed a funeral coach bearing the body of Lena Eftrem, 58, their so-called queen, Tuesday from where it had lain in state since Friday.

Tele-fun

Frank Eftrem, the widower, said the funeral procession was made up of relatives from "all over the world."

"Call grandpop at his club, but give him time to answer. He'll be right in the middle of some fish story..."
