OAKLAND EASTERN STAR HOLDS INSTALLATION

A beautiful and impressive installation of officers was held at the Oakland Masonic Temple Thursday evening for officers of the Eastern Star Chapter No. 91, which was open to the public and was witnessed by a large group. The chapter room was decorated in the star colors by baskets placed on the walls. The downstairs dining room was beautifully decorated also by Mrs. Mary Barker and her committee. The following past matrons were the installing officers: Juanita Holgate, installing matron; Naomi Riggs, installing marshal; Mary Barker, installing chaplain; Delmar Murphy, past patron, installing patron. The new officers installed were: matron, Meryl Wahl; worthy patron, Ted Rosman; associate matron, Irma Cornish; associate patron, Lloyd Cornish; secretary, Mary Bovingdon; treasurer, Ada McCall; conductress, Helen Stuewe; associate conductress, Fern Flory; marshal, Betty Early; chaplain, Gertrude Hebard; organist, Marion Turner; stantpoints, Ada, Doris Steinbach; Ruth, Jean Treman; Ester, Olga Bielmann; Martha, Dorothy Austin; Electa, Dathryn Roadman; warden, Edna Campbell; sentinel, Howard Wahl. The following Courtesy Girls were appointed with Juanita Holgate as captain: Joan Taylor, Evelyn Hensley, Dena Bennett, Joan Rice, Ora Irwin, Genevieve Cox, Helme Burns, Susan Bunch, Dorothy Clark and Grace Wood. A pretty addenda was put on by the Courtesy Girls and Genevieve and Delmar Murphy, the retiring matron and patron, were presented with a gift from the past officers by Meryl Wahl. Mary Barker also presented Mrs. Murphy with a past officers pin. Meryl Wahl, worthy matron, was presented with a gift from the Job's Daughters by Gay Anderson. A gavel was also presented to her by her husband, Howard Wahl, which he had used when worshipful master of the Oakland Masonic Lodge. Carol Finman, solist for the evening, presented two numbers. A number of visitors were present including the worthy matron and patron of the Roseburg chapter. After the ceremony, everyone was invited to the downstairs dining room where refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

MRS. LAURANCE HOSTESS TO MARTHA CIRCLE

Mrs. Willard Laurance was hostess Friday to the Martha Circle of the Diland Woman's Society of Christian Service at her home in Dillard. The potluck luncheon was served at noon from a beautifully appointed dining table. A colorful touch was added by the birthday cake which was lighted in honor of Mrs. Bert Laurance's birthday.

The business meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Harold Emert. The minutes of the program meeting were read by Mrs. Feenstra, secretary pro tem. Mrs. Helen Rummel then read a letter from the foreign student at U. of O. Ludberg Graf Zu Meunster, stating his regret at not being able to visit during Christmas vacation and hoping to visit the organization some time during the year. Mrs. Stanford Buell read the treasurer's report. She reported the group had recently purchased a coffee urn from the George Backers for the church dining room. The coffee bands and keys are to be sent to the Salem Methodist Home for their urns. Other bills were reported paid by the treasurer.

It was voted to postpone the January program meeting until the third Tuesday in February, at which time Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton will speak to the whole church group.

A roll call was made of the membership and every member received a "sister" to keep in touch with, to invite to the meetings and to help feel a part of the group. The following new members were especially honored at the meeting: Mrs. Jean Hill, Mrs. Selma Dozier, Mrs. Donna Fisher, Mrs. Agnes McClenon, Mrs. Marie Claiborne and Mrs. Neva Conrad. These new members responded by telling some interesting things about their lives and were welcomed into the membership.

Mrs. Mercy Buell then presented a plan for supporting an orphan child in Korea. The plan is for each family to collect a penny per person a day for this fund. She chose ten captains who are to meet with her to make plans.
