Myrtle Creek Lions Add More Money To Fund

By RUTH M. EVANS

The Myrtle Creek Lions collected $342.50 for the polo drive Jan. 23. Chairman Leonard Dyer, said that about 20 members turned out to help collect dollars for the block of dollars, but that they fell about 10 feet short of filling in the block.

Weather Affects Meeting

Bad weather conditions throughout the state resulted in a small attendance at the American Childhood Education meeting held at Myrtle Creek Saturday, according to Mrs. Kelly, primary principal of the Myrtle Creek schools.

Dr. John McAuley of the Southern Oregon College told the group that 1954 college teacher graduates have received letters and contracts from the school system of San Diego, Calif. He said that the graduates are being offered jobs at a beginning salary of $4,000 and are allowed time off at the school's expense to qualify as California teachers. He added that the graduating teachers are signing up for the jobs almost completely.

The Myrtle Creek PTA executive board will meet at the home of Mrs. Leroy Lowell Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Four couples of the Tri-Square dance club joined the Roseburg caravan Saturday morning to attend the square dance festival in Portland Saturday evening. Attending from Myrtle Creek were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Love, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Graf, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brownson and Mr. and Mrs. Ab Ramey.

Get LIFE GUARD SAFETY TUBES by GOOD YEAR

Safer 3 Ways

That's right—LifeGuards give you protection 3 ways: from blowout accidents, from time consuming punctures; from the necessity of buying new tubes every time you buy new tires.

BLOWOUT-SAFE!—When a tire blows out, the LifeGuard's strong inner chamber holds enough life protecting air to let you bring your car to a safe, controlled, straight-line stop. Only the LifeGuard Double air chamber principle protects against all types of blowouts.

PUNCTURE-SAFE!—In case of a puncture the patented Goodyear Sealant seals the puncture instantly without loss of air. When you remove the puncturing object, the sealant seals the hole permanently.

RE-USABLE SAFE FOR 100,000 MILES! You can put new LifeGuard Safety Tubes in your present tires. You can change to each new set you buy for the next 100,000 miles or more.
